"Give, and gifts will be given to you; a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you." Luke 6:38

When we give generously of the resources God has entrusted to us, we always receive more than we give.

Breaking Open God's Word: Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Putting the lessons from today's Gospel into practice is a major challenge. It is tempting to fight back, to be judgmental, to condemn those who do not agree with us. After all, isn't that what we see online or on television, or practice ourselves on social media or among our family and friends? The key to meeting this challenge is to become as selfless as possible. We must overcome our self-centeredness and choose self-sacrifice, as Jesus himself did. He freely gave his healing power knowing he could not be repaid. He lived without possessions, trusting in God's generosity. He forgave his enemies, even from the cross. It helps to see life as a collaboration, with all God's children growing and developing in harmony, not as a competition, where we fear that we will not get or keep what is our fair share.
