April 10 The Church & Environment

May 8 Final (Bonfire/Social)

"He said to his father in reply: 'Look, all these years I served you.....yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.'" Luke 15:29-30

The father practiced God's version of generosity – unearned and unconditional. A steward sees a need and responds without asking questions concerning whether it is deserved or not.

Breaking Open God's Word: Fourth Sunday of Lent

The prodigal son is starving just the same as the Chosen People in the desert. He is willing to eat as poorly as one of his father's hired workers. Instead, his father spends his own wealth (for he'd already given his son half his legacy) to provide a feast for him, a banquet of reconciliation. The prodigal son sinned in every way possible, spurning his father and living a dissolute life. Yet the father welcomes him back with open arms. We recall this feast as we approach the Eucharistic table as sinners today, which itself foreshadows the banquet of reconciliation we are promised when we at last are united with God.
