“Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness.”
Philippians 2:6-7

Stewardship is an attitude. It is an attitude that does not seek praise from others, but an attitude that strives to serve others. Every day a steward asks, “Who does God want me to serve today?”

Breaking Open God’s Word: Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

Luke’s version of the Passion includes three examples of Jesus’ mercy toward sinners that are not mentioned by the other evangelists. First, for Peter: Even as Jesus tells Peter that he will deny him three times, he also tells him that when he turns back, he must strengthen the other disciples. Implicitly he forgives Peter for the cowardice he knows that he will show under duress, going so far as to rely on this disciple who will show terrible weakness to be a source of strength in the future. Later, Luke alone writes that when the cock crowed, Jesus turned and looked at Peter. Without saying anything more, we know that Jesus did not look at him in anger or disappointment, but with sympathy and mercy. Second, for those who played a role in his death sentence: “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do” (Luke 23:34). Finally, for the penitent criminal on the cross, whom he assures will be with him in heaven. Right up until his final breath, Jesus offered unconditional mercy to those who needed it. We are those sinners in need now.
