"Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying: 'Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one....'"
John 17:20-21

It is through the stewardship of sharing our blessings with others, and caring for their needs, that we truly become one Body of Christ. Let us always pray to God our Father that we recognize these opportunities as they arise.

Breaking Open God's Word: The Ascension of the Lord

In each option for the second reading, the author speaks of our hearts directing us to the Lord. The letter to the Ephesians, most likely written by someone writing in Paul's name, calls for "the eyes of your hearts" to be enlightened and so lead us to follow Jesus' call (Ephesians 1:18). In Hebrews, we are invited into the sanctuary, that is, into God's presence, with sincere hearts "sprinkled clean from an evil conscience" (Hebrews 10:22). In ancient times, the heart was thought of as the core of our being and the location of our will. Recall that the psalmist, for instance, cautioned us of hardening our hearts, of resisting the tender care of God. When Jesus left the earth, he left us a new world, one in which our hearts have been purified by the blood of Christ—by his sacrifice on the cross—and now able to be offered to our redeemer.
