"And hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us." Romans 5:5

We are children of a generous God; we are stewards of all God's gifts. Let us be grateful for the gifts God has given to us.

Breaking Open God's Word: The Most Holy Trinity

God constantly draws us into relationship. Living in relationship is foundational to the Trinity, so naturally God wishes to live in relationship with us. Jesus lived his life creating and deepening relationships with others: spending his days with his friends (bringing them with him all over Galilee), sharing his deepest concerns with them (telling them he would die and rise again), and caring for their well-being (calming the storm, raising Lazarus). The Father and Son sent the Holy Spirit to come down upon us and remain with us forever in a most intimate relationship. In this way, we are enabled to live constantly in a loving relationship with God.
