School

Tours for Prospective Families
This is an exciting time as we begin the process of welcoming prospective families to Nativity School. Choosing a school for your child is one of the most important decisions for parents!

We will be offering individual tours this fall and early winter for those interested in learning more about Nativity School. We are always pleased to meet prospective families as they seek to find a school in which their children will thrive during their formative years.

Touring during a typical school day provides an opportunity for parents to see the learning process which is grounded in our Catholic faith. We would love to partner with you as your child embarks on this educational journey. If you would like schedule a tour, please call the School office and speak to Mary Jo at (651) 699-1311. We look forward to meeting you!

Book Fair - November 6, 8, and 11
The Nativity Book Fair is coming this week! Beginning with our Student Preview this Tuesday, Scholastic Books will be available for purchase in the School auditorium. We ask that students K-2 simply browse the fair during the preview. Students in 3rd grade and older will be allowed to purchase books at this time.

The sale continues after school (and through conferences) on Tuesday, November 6 and Thursday, November 8, as well as after Masses on Sunday, November 11. A large variety of new and used books for children and adults will be available, and the proceeds will directly benefit our classrooms and School library. See you at the Book Fair!

From weddings to Turkey Bingo, we'd love to highlight the vibrancy, faith, and beauty of our parish in the bulletin and other print publications, on the website, and through our various social media outlets. Please send photos to ihuss@nativity-mn.org and let us know who should get the credit. Thank you!

Young Adults

Election Day Social Hour - Tuesday, November 6, 8pm
Tuesday is Election Day! Go do your civic duty, then join fellow young adults for some patriotic socializing at Augustine's on Selby Ave. Wear your "I Voted" sticker and receive a free beverage on Urban Catholic. Not sure who or what to vote for? See below.

Visit https://nativity-mn.org/urban-catholic for more information about Urban Catholic, a young adult movement at Nativity of Our Lord. And/or, invite a friend and #jointhemovement.

Election Day

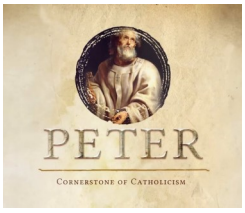
Online Resources
Tuesday is Election Day. Are you ready? As Catholics, we are called to form our consciences to inform our votes—instead of simply conforming to political ideologies or partisan politics—and together we can begin to transform our state. The Minnesota Catholic Conference is a Church-sponsored organization built to help you do just that. Visit www.mncatholic.org/resources/election/ for resources to help you prepare your heart and mind for Election Day.

Prayer

Seven Sisters Apostolate
Help pray for our priests with the Seven Sisters Apostolate here at Nativity of Our Lord! This new apostolate is a group of seven women from the parish who commit to praying one Holy Hour on a specific day of the week for their pastor. This Holy Hour can be made anywhere and at any hour on the committed day. While only women may be one of the anchoring sisters, men are welcome as substitutes. If you would like to join the Seven Sisters or be a substitute, please contact Caitlin Heaney Stollenwerk at (651) 271-0113 or heaneycate@gmail.com. For more information about the apostolate, visit https://sevensistersapostolate.org.

Online Formation

FORMED Pick of the Week - Sunday, November 4
Few people know nor remember a man named Cornelius in the Bible, though he plays an important role in the life of our first pope, Peter, and the history of the whole Church. In this week's FORMED Pick of the Week, Dr. Tim Gray shows us how the life of Cornelius intersects with Peter's and redirects the course of history in a remarkable way. This week, visit http://nativitystpaul.formed.org, watch Lectio: Peter, Episode 9: Peter Bar Jonah, and be FORMED!



Called and Gifted

Called and Gifted™ Workshop - Saturday, Nov. 10, 9am-5pm
Looking for fruitful ways to cultivate joy, share it, and serve others? Then you'll want to join us for the Called and Gifted Workshop at Nativity of Our Lord next Saturday in Steiner Hall.

Catholics worldwide have participated in Called and Gifted Workshops, learning to recognize the charisms given at Baptism equipping us to live out our call in the world. Nativity's workshop is led by Patrick Conley (pictured), an engaging leader and facilitator trained by the Catherine of Siena Institute in Colorado Springs—and the only Minnesota facilitator endorsed by our Archdiocese.

This one-day seminar is $80 per person, which includes materials, refreshments, lunch, and a follow-up individual discernment interview. All young adults (age 35 and younger) receive a $30 discount, and no one—of any age—will be turned away for financial reasons! For more information, contact Randy at (651) 696-5454 or rmueller@nativity-mn.org, or visit https://nativity-mn.org/events/called-and-gifted-workshop.

NCCW

Turkey Bingo - Friday, November 9, 5:30pm
Join us for a night of fun (and pizza!) for the whole family at Turkey Bingo this Friday evening in the School cafeteria. To make this event a success, we need donations of turkeys, soda, and cash, and volunteers are needed as well. Contact Julie Dettinger at (651) 208-7335 or juliedettinger@gmail.com or Nancy Hays at (651) 336-5595 or nancylindbeck@hotmail.com for more information.

Adoration

Hours Needed
The following hours have no adorers scheduled and represent our greatest need for new commitments:

- Monday at 1pm and 4pm;
- Tuesday at 11am;
- Wednesday at 1pm and 3pm;
- Thursday at 3pm;
- Friday at 2am and 3pm; and
- Saturday at 6pm.

Visit http://nativity-mn.org/perpetual-adoration for more information, or head directly to www.adorationpro.org/nativity to sign up online. If you would like to speak to someone about becoming a regular adorer or dedicated substitute, please contact Jim at mcquillanj@rjffs.com or (763) 746-8244. Thank you for your prayerful consideration!

Respect Life

40 Days for Life - Ends Sunday, November 4
Thank you to all who participated in this Fall campaign and to all who continue to pray for those who are vulnerable to abortion. Here's a story from Boulder, CO from this campaign:

A woman angrily called out to volunteers praying in front the abortion center in Boulder, which performs them into the third trimester. A larger-than-usual group had assembled to pray with Denver Archbishop Samuel Aquila, and some of the prayer warriors stepped aside to dialogue with the woman.

"Over the next 30 minutes, participants were able to share what happens behind the clinic door—just 10 feet away," Susan said. "She accepted our concerns about a culture that allows the taking the life up to the time of birth, and we gave her a copy of Peter Kreeft's book, Three Approaches to Abortion." But that's not the end of the story. The woman returned later that day. "With tears in her eyes, she told us she changed her mind and was grateful for our time," Susan said. "She gave the group a gift: confirmation that our quiet, peaceful prayers do result in changed minds."

We are looking for enthusiastic helpers for upcoming Respect Life events, so please prayerfully consider joining us. Contact Karen McCann at (612) 964-4522 or karmccann@comcast.net to find out more, or visit https://40daysforlife.com/ or https://plam.org/ to learn out more about the campaign.

Prayer for Those with profound Disabilities
Lord Jesus Christ, Hear our prayers for our brothers and sisters whose bodies fail them and those minds are crippled by the ravages of disease. May we find you in their weakness, and console you in our care for them. Amen!

Pastoral Care

Grief Support - Thursday, November 8, 9-10am
Nativity of Our Lord has joined forces with Lumen Christi parish for our monthly Grief Support group, which will meet again this Thursday morning in the bride's room (moved from last Thursday due to the holy day). The group, guided by trained grief facilitators, typically meets the first Thursday of each month September through June.

We welcome all who have suffered a loss of someone or something of value, recognizing that grief is personal—yet it is often eased when shared with others. For more information, or to request accessibility accommodations, please contact Nancy Shatek-Suek, Pastoral Care Coordinator at Nativity, at nshatek-suek@nativity-mn.org or (651) 696-5444.

Reflections

Killing the Pain, Not the Patient:
Palliative Care vs. Assisted Suicide
Assisted suicide is in the news and on lawmakers' agendas. Supporters call it "aid in dying" and claim it's just another option for end-of-life care. But it's radically different from the practice of palliative care, the healing art of relieving pain and other distressing symptoms for patients who are seriously ill.

Palliative care intends to comfort a patient, addressing physical, psychological, emotional, and spiritual needs. Assisted suicide, by contrast, directly intends the patient's death. It ignores any underlying problems, and instead abandons and eliminates the patient who has the problems.

Did You Know?
Medical organizations like the American Medical Association oppose assisted suicide.

As a society and as individuals, we must dedicate ourselves to providing genuinely compassionate care that protects God's gift of life.
