Anna Davis, Principal

"I am a parishioner who lives in the neighborhood. On Saturday morning I was packing my car to go somewhere and left my door open while I ran back in the house to get some other things. I was gone perhaps 2 minutes. Unfortunately, I had already put my purse on the floor of my car. In that time my neighbor saw someone pull up, run to my car, grab my purse and take off. They then tried the same thing at Quick Trip.

I made a foolish mistake but want to encourage others to be careful. If you are packing your car, bringing in groceries, or getting gas, please keep you keys and your wallet or purse with you and lock your car even if you are right by it or go inside briefly.

The police also advise not to pull out a weapon which could lead to something much worse than theft. Please join me in praying for those who hurt others by these actions

RESPECT LIFE APOSTOLATE CO-SPONSORING NATIONAL PRO-LIFE WOMEN'S CONFERENCE, JUNE 23-25, ST. CHARLES

The Archdiocese of St. Louis Respect Life Apostolate is co-sponsoring the national Pro-Life Women's Conference at the St. Charles Convention Center, June 23-25. The conference takes place during the one-year anniversary of the Dobbs v. Jackson decision which overturned legalized abortion in Missouri and other states.

Educating, affirming, empowering, and activating women to build a Culture of Life in their community and beyond, the conference features inspiring presentations by some of the most well-known women leaders in the country. They include pro-life author and advocate Abby Johnson (keynote at the 2019 Respect Life Convention), Lauren Muzyka (Sidewalk Advocates for Life), Angela Minter (Sisters for Life, Inc. who also spoke at the 2022 Respect Life Convention), and more.

The conference also offers opportunities for prayer, fellowship, and friendship for women by women in the pro-life movement that promises to be unrivaled and unforgettable. On Saturday of the conference, Most Rev. Mark S. Rivituso, Auxiliary Bishop of St. Louis, will celebrate the Vigil Mass and priests of the Archdiocese will be available for the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

The Priesthood and the Eucharist

"These two Sacraments were born together," wrote St. John Paul II of the priesthood and the Eucharist, "and their destiny is indissolubly linked until the end of the world."

The Eucharist is such a beautiful example of how God, conscious of our limitations, bends to meet us. He once came to us cloaked in the flesh, that we might recognize Him. Now He comes as the very means by which we nourish ourselves: food and drink, the most familiar and comforting thing in the world to us. How easy He makes it to fulfill his command that we become one with Him. How generous He is to make such a sacred thing also accessible.

We can say the same of the priesthood, and of the men He calls to its number. How generous of Him to make such an accessible thing — our sons, our brothers, our uncles, our cousins — sacred. How generous of Him to allow these human creations — who share in our own faults — to be the means through which He comes to us in the Eucharist.

Without the Eucharist, we would have no eternal life. Without priests, we would have no Eucharist. On this, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, let's give thanks for our priests, and redouble our prayers that God will send us good and holy ones — manna from Heaven in our wandering exile.

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day." — John 6:54

One of the most important missionary animation, education and support programs is the Missionary Plan of Cooperation. Each year, the Mission Office sends someone to speak at parishes in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. These groups and dioceses make an appeal for their missionary cause and ask for the parishioners' prayers and financial support. Through this program, parishioners also learn more about the missionary work of the Church, which leads to a better understanding of our baptismal calling to share in the mandate of Our Lord: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations..." (Matthew 28:20).

THIS WEEKEND, June 10 & 11, Fr. Jim Michler is at St. Ferdinand to speak about the Missionary Plan of Cooperation. Please welcome Fr. Michler and be generous with your gift to the Missions.
