"Revival" -- The bringing alive of what was dead, is something only God himself can do.

Do you want a closer relationship with our Eucharistic Lord—Jesus? He can always bring you closer to Him no matter how close you are.

- ⇒ Invite Him to enter into a deeper relationship with you. Just as He does not force us into a relationship with Him, He also doesn't force His way into a relationship with us. He waits to be invited.
- ⇒ Treat Him as you would want Him to treat you. Sometimes when something is so easy it can become routine, and we can begin to take His gifts for granted. Treat every opportunity to be with Him as if it is your last chance to be with Him.
- ⇒ Talk to Him daily and spend time in silence giving Him a chance to speak to you. All good relationships are a shared journey. Invite Him to lead you on your journey to a deeper relationship with Him.

If you would like to join the Eucharistic Revival Team at St. Ferdinand, please contact:
Shane Kapler at: shanekapler@yahoo.com or Alice Rodriguez at: alicerodriguez62@gmail.com

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR LITTLEST CATHOLICS

May we suggest that you...

- RELAX! God put the wiggle in children. There is no need to suppress it in church.
- SIT CLOSE & EXPLAIN: Sit towards the front where it's easier to see and hear. Quietly explain the parts of the Mass.
- PARTICIPATE: Your child learns by imitating you. Sing, pray, and respond. Your child will follow your lead.
- WANDER: If you need to leave Mass, feel free to visit the Gathering Space, but be sure to come back!
- TO OUR PARISHIONERS... The presence of children is a gift to the Church, and they are a reminder that our parish is growing.
- Please welcome our children and give a warm, supportive smile of encouragement to their parents.
- CHILDREN... We are happy you are here to celebrate with us!

Answering God's call and sharing His love with others is our joyful duty as Catholics. Let us come together to support the Annual Catholic Appeal and help our brothers and sisters who seek the Lord's grace and mercy. As one Church, we will Reach out in Love and fill every heart with hope.

It is not too late to make a pledge!

We are in the next phase of the drive. The volunteers will be making some phone calls and the Archdiocese will be sending out follow-up letters.

Please drop your card off in the collection box or return it to the Parish Office. We have duplicate ACA cards in the Parish Office in case you misplaced yours.

Visit aca.archstl.org to learn more about how the Appeal helps our brothers and sisters in need to overcome the obstacles they face. You can also Text-to-Give by texting "ACA" to 243725.

We are so close to our goal! Will you help us reach it?

A Prophet's Reward

"Move back in with us until you save enough for a decent house," my mother told me over and over again as the birth of my second child neared.

My little family was quickly outgrowing our rented space, but the housing market in our area was a nightmare for first-time homebuyers. As appealing as the offer was, I kept refusing, convinced that my mother didn't understand the chaos, disruption, and loss of personal space that such a move would mean for her and my dad.

I was wrong — she did. And eventually she wore me down. When my son was three months old my family of four moved back into my old bedroom. My parents made an office space for my husband in the basement, and they converted their den into a playroom for two of the loudest children you will ever meet. They told us we could stay as long as we needed to (it ended up being two years). They greeted us with love and warmth every morning and never made us feel like we were an inconvenience.

Today's first reading always reminds me of my mom, not because I consider myself a prophet (hardly) but because of the way she received me — specifically, in whose name she received me.

I've always tried to understand exactly what makes my parents' acts of love — toward me, toward each other, toward perfect strangers — feel so genuine. I think, after more than 30 years, I've finally realized the secret: my parents love God more than they love me. They love God more than they love anyone.

Like making room in their life and their home for me and my boisterous family, these acts originate in sacrifice. They don't come cheap. They come from the cross.

"Whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." — Matthew 10:39

VOTIVE CANDLES IN CHURCH

PRICE CHANGE TO $5
EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2023

Requested offering for each candle is changing from $3 to $5 starting July 1, 2023.

This offering request has not been changed in over 30 years. Our cost for each candle is currently over $3.00 each. Any extra money from each candle will be used to offset the cost for tabernacle, altar, advent, mass of remembrance, baptismal, processional and congressional candles. As well as, lighting wicks and sticks and candle snuffer.

The Ladies Sodality deposits candle money, orders candles, and pay for candles. The Altar Society changes/maintains all the candles used in church. All candle envelopes are stamped and donated.

CALLING ALL QUILTERS! NEW OR EXPERIENCED

The St. Ferdinand Quilters meet every Monday in the basement of the Duchesne Center. The Morning Quilting Group starts at 9:00 a.m., the rosary is prayed together at 10:00, brown bag lunch at noon and quilting ends at 2:00 p.m. You can stay all day or part of the day. The Evening Quilting Group meets on Monday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The goal is 13 quilts for the Quilt Bingo held on the first Sunday in November. We are always looking for new members. So, if you are interested in learning to quilt, or can already quilt, feel free to join us on Mondays.

We are also looking for volunteers to put quilt tops together, pathwork or embroidered blocks. We have a large supply of donated material and embroidered blocks to choose from. Any help is greatly appreciated.

The chairman reports monthly to the members of the Ladies Sodality, its parent organization. Membership to the Ladies Sodality is not required - but welcomed.

For more information, call Sharon Derhake at 314-921-1100 or stop by on a Monday to check us out. We will not be meeting on July 3 or July 10.

Another Successful St. Ferdinand's
Mens Club Golf Tournament

The 57th running of the St. Ferdinand golf tournament was held on Saturday, June 24th, at the Florissant Golf Course with 92 golfers participating. The teams teed off at 1:30 under very balmy conditions so lots of fluids were consumed during the 18 holes of golf. Everyone seemed to have a good time spending the day with family and friends and using the opportunity to meet new friends.

We are very thankful for the great support we received from the many businesses in the area and the generosity from organizations and individuals from within the parish. Special thanks to John Marxkors for organizing the tournament, Don Costello for the food preparations, and the small dedicated team of volunteers who helped make the tournament a success once again.
