WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC LIKE EXPLAINED

Coming Back to Church

Question:

I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to Church?

Answer:

If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back. This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be. ©LPi

"Revival" -- The bringing alive of what was dead, is something only God himself can do.

Do you want a closer relationship with our Eucharistic Lord—Jesus? He can always bring you closer to Him no matter how close you are.

- ⇒ Invite Him to enter into a deeper relationship with you. Just as He does not force us into a relationship with Him, He also doesn't force His way into a relationship with us. He waits to be invited.
- ⇒ Treat Him as you would want Him to treat you. Sometimes when something is so easy it can become routine, and we can begin to take His gifts for granted. Treat every opportunity to be with Him as if it is your last chance to be with Him.
- ⇒ Talk to Him daily and spend time in silence giving Him a chance to speak to you. All good relationships are a shared journey. Invite Him to lead you on your journey to a deeper relationship with Him.

If you would like to join the Eucharistic Revival Team at St. Ferdinand, please contact:
Shane Kapler at: shanekapler@yahoo.com or
Alice Rodriguez at alicerodriguez62@gmail.com

TO THE PARENTS OF OUR LITTLEST CATHOLICS

May we suggest that you...

- RELAX! God put the wiggle in children. There is no need to suppress it in church.
- SIT CLOSE & EXPLAIN: Sit towards the front where it's easier to see and hear. Quietly explain the parts of the Mass.
- PARTICIPATE: Your child learns by imitating you. Sing, pray, and respond. Your child will follow your lead.
- WANDER: If you need to leave Mass, feel free to visit the Gathering Space, but be sure to come back!
- TO OUR PARISHIONERS... The presence of children is a gift to the Church, and they are a reminder that our parish is growing.
- Please welcome our children and give a warm, supportive smile of encouragement to their parents.
- CHILDREN...We are happy you are here to celebrate with us!

Answering God's call and sharing His love with others is our joyful duty as Catholics. Let us come together to support the Annual Catholic Appeal and help our brothers and sisters who seek the Lord's grace and mercy. As one Church, we will Reach out in Love and fill every heart with hope.

It is not too late to make a pledge!

We are in the next phase of the drive. The volunteers will be making some phone calls and the Archdiocese will be sending out follow-up letters.

Please drop your card off in the collection box or return it to the Parish Office. We have duplicate ACA cards in the Parish Office in case you misplaced yours.

Visit aca.archstl.org to learn more about how the Appeal helps our brothers and sisters in need to overcome the obstacles they face. You can also Text-to-Give by texting "ACA" to 243725.

We are so close to our goal! Will you help us reach it?

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

A Ballad of Flesh and Spirit

"My yoke is easy and my burden is light," says the man hanging from a cross. And if we only went on what we see with our eyes — flesh driven through by nails and sword, swollen from beating and inches from expiration — it would seem like a joke.

I'll tell you something we all know: this life on earth is hard. It's either too long or it's too short. It's frequently painful. It's riddled with problems that seem to make no sense. It is, as Dickens wrote, "made of ever so many partings welded together."

But it's also shockingly, senselessly beautiful. It is full of physical experiences of love, joy, and peace that are so powerful they leave you breathless.

It is both these things — good and bad, hard and wonderful, just as we are both body and soul, spirit and flesh.

No one knows the Father except the Son, who entered into our bodily existence to free us from enslavement to it. No one knows the Son except the Father, and the means by which they know one another — the love passing between them, the Third Person himself — has been shared with us, has made its dwelling within us through baptism.

"Brothers and sisters, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh."

— Romans 8:12

VOTIVE CANDLES IN CHURCH

PRICE CHANGE TO $5
EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2023

Requested offering for each candle is changing from $3 to $5 starting July 1, 2023.

This offering request has not been changed in over 30 years. Our cost for each candle is currently over $3.00 each. Any extra money from each candle will be used to offset the cost for tabernacle, altar, advent, mass of remembrance, baptismal, processional and congressional candles. As well as, lighting wicks and sticks and candle snuffer.

The Ladies Sodality deposits candle money, orders candles, and pay for candles. The Altar Society changes/maintains all the candles used in church. All candle envelopes are stamped and donated.
