Time to Say Goodbye

I guess Neil Sedaka was right when he sang, "Breaking Up Is Hard To Do"! I've been packing for the last couple of weeks and every time I enter my room, I keep being reminded by the empty bookshelves, closets and dresser drawers that I will be leaving soon. But the really hard part is having to say goodbye to all of you. I have come to know you and love you over the last seven years. I know that I have not been perfect, and I know that there is so much that I wanted to do but didn't have the time to do it (Thanks largely to Covid and then the All Things New process), but I hope I was able to accomplish a little. When I came to St Ferdinand seven years ago, in my first homilies I remember saying that no matter what we do as a parish or where we go as a parish, the only thing that matters is our faith in Jesus Christ. That still holds true and that is the one thing that I want to leave you with because it's the only thing that matters!! In a couple of days, Fr Lijo will be your new pastor and Fr Baden and Fr Nick will be here to assist him. I hope you will welcome them like you welcomed me when I first arrived.

Thank you for your love, prayers and support over the years.

God Bless All Of You!

-fr mike

BEAUTIFUL EUCHARIST

Pick up a copy of the book, Beautiful Eucharist. It is an invitation to encounter the life-giving presence of Jesus in the Eucharist so you can be a life-giving presence in the world. The world needs the healing and hope only Jesus can provide. He is waiting in the Eucharist to transform families, Churches, communities, and the culture as a whole. And all of that begins with your own life-changing encounter with him today.

On The weekend of August 5th & 6th we will host a Meet & Greet for our new priests, Fr. Lijo Kallarackal and

Fr. Joe Baden in the Duchesne Center after all of the Masses. Cookies, coffee, tea and water will be served after the 5 p.m. Mass and donuts, juice, coffee and milk will be served after the Sunday Masses in the Duchesne Hall. Please come and help us welcome them to our parish. This is also a good chance for parishioners from all three parishes to meet each other.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of:

ROSEMARIE SIEBELS, mother of Steve (Deanne) Siebels

May God welcome her home and comfort her family and friends in their time of sorry. May her soul and all the souls of the faithfully departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

LOST RING

On June 19, a parishioner lost her ring at Mass. It is silver with a square setting with diamond chips. It says MOM on each side. If you found it, please call the rectory at 314-837-3165. It has strong sentimental value to the owner.

ADORATION CHAPEL

See the bulletin cover for the hours the Chapel is open for adoration. Listed below are the hours where an assigned adorer is needed.

The Falling Action and the Field

In my freshman year of high school, I was fairly miserable at identifying the five essential elements of plot (exposition, rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution).

To this day, the only reason I remember anything about them at all is because my English teacher used episodes of Scooby Doo to illustrate the different elements. Falling action vs. climax is where I got tripped up, the two are similar, and only discernible if you examine them relative to each other.

Every Scooby Doo episode has a big dramatic sequence (the climax) where the ghost/monster/zombie chases The Gang through the haunted mansion. The falling action is what comes immediately after: searching for her glasses that she lost during the chase, Velma bumps into a pulley wheel disguised behind a tapestry and realizes the ghost/monster/zombie is actually the janitor in a costume, hooked up to an elaborate cable system jerry-rigged throughout the mansion. Meddling kids.

I confused the two because, to me, they are both equally dramatic: the chase and the fallout.

It occurs to me that, if you look at the course of salvation history, we are living in the falling action, not the climax. Take the parable of the treasure in the field: we have found the treasure. But we haven't yet bought the field.

I often make the mistake of thinking I am still lost in the climax, searching for the truth. But I know exactly where the truth is.

What I need to be concerned with is this: am I doing what I need to do to buy the field?

"Wonderful are your decrees; therefore I observe them. The revelation of your words sheds light, giving understanding to the simple." – Psalm 119

Mass for Father of All Mankind

In 1932, God the Father dictated the following message to Mother Eugenia: I desire only this –

I desire that one day, or at least a Sunday, be dedicated to honoring Me in a special way under the title of Father of All mankind. If you prefer to offer Me this special devotion on a Sunday, I choose the first Sunday of August. My hour has come! I must be known, loved and honored by men, so that having created them I can be their Father, then their Savior and finally the object of their eternal delight.

Summer is in full bloom! As we enjoy the blossoms in summertime, may we reflect on the garden of our Faith with its many blessings. Cultivating a beautiful garden takes some time and effort. Likewise, tending to the garden of our Faith will be enriched by tuning in often to Covenant Network Catholic radio.

Our programming, which includes daily Holy Mass, the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, live call-in shows and much more, will help nourish the garden of your Faith.

Listen to KHOJ 1460 AM or on the Covenant Network app or anytime at OurCatholicRadio.org.

NEWMAN CENTER

College students and parents of college students connect with your Newman Center and campus ministry before you leave for college. The Newman Centers are NOT notified by universities that Catholic students are on campus so many college students never locate their Catholic ministry or church at all. Your assistance is greatly needed to help our young people stay close to their faith and grow in their relationship with Our Lord. It is through their connection with their college Catholic community that they will be able to make good Catholic friends, continue their formation and grow as they discern what direction God has for their lives. Please enter the student's information in the NewmanConnection <http://newmanconnection.com/> so the student is notified of Newman Center's activities.
