From Father Lijo...

It has been three months since I came to St. Ferdinand as part of the All-things New Strategic pastoral planning for the diocese. It seems to me I have been here for a lot longer than that. I have mixed feelings about my experience here. On one hand I feel we are moving towards the plan for our parish to be one united parish family embracing the communities of both St. Sabina and St. Martin de Porres and on the other I feel we need to go a little further forward in regards to being fully integrated as one family.

I am so happy to see some of you make it a point to attend Masses at the different locations which helps you to meet and get to know people and the clergy. We have a few more weeks to do that and for people from Sabina and Martin's to try and familiarize themselves with the Ferdinand parish church where we will have Masses beginning the first week of advent, which is in December. Towards this goal, we had the festival of ministries which had a huge response. My expectation with this was that all those who wish to contribute to the ministry of the parish liturgy have an opportunity to do so, and those who are already ministers at other two parishes now can continue to do so, when we start having it all at St. Ferdinand. Hope all of you had the opportunity to sign up for the ministries you want to serve on and be a part of the parish family.

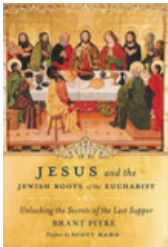

We had the same envelopes for St. Sabina from October onwards and St. Martins are getting the same envelopes beginning this month. Please remember to make checks payable to St. Ferdinand. Although we still have our bank accounts for Sabina and Martin open, and even if you write checks to them, we can still process them for now. But it would be helpful if you start making the check payable to St. Ferdinand.

Beginning the first week of Advent, i.e., December 2/3 we will have Masses only at the St. Ferdinand location. And Mass times will be Monday to Friday 6 and 8 AM. Saturday morning 8 AM.

And on weekends: 7 AM, 9 AM, 11 AM and 5 PM on Sunday and on Saturday 4:30 PM. The confessions will be Saturday 3:00 PM to 4:00 PM.

I will be installed as pastor on November 11 during the 5 PM Mass. I invite all of you to attend the ceremony and pray for me. Let us continue to pray and work together towards our goal.

Fr. Lijo Kallarackal

Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist

We will be offering a book study beginning Monday, November 6, at 7:00 PM in the Duchesne Hall and conclude on Monday, December 18.

All are welcome and encourage to participate. The book is published by Crown Publishing and is available to order online via a number of sources. It is also available in E-book format.

(If you cannot afford the book but want to attend, send a message to Deacon Phil)

To reserve your spot, email Deacon Phil at philhutsler@gmail.com.

FR. LIJO'S INSTALLATION AS PASTOR

NOVEMBER 11—5 PM MASS

The Very Reverend Scott Jones, our Episcopal Vicar, will be here on November 11 to celebrate Mass and install Fr. Lijo Kallarackal as our 9th Pastor of St. Ferdinand Parish at the current location.

There will be a reception for him in the Duchesne Center following Mass. The plans are still being made but please save that date. We hope to fill the church for this joyous celebration!

Please RSVP by Sunday, November 5th by signing up this weekend in the Gathering Space, register online at stferdinandstl.org/frlijo-reception

By email: debbiehenderson@mac.com or calling the rectory at 314-837-3165.

Jesus and the Eucharist Study—ADDED SESSIONS!

We have had a great response to the video series, Jesus and the Eucharist. Many people have asked about offering it on a different day or in the evening.

It will conclude on January 30.

More information will follow. You are welcome to attend the Sunday morning sessions and / or the Tuesday sessions.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to the people who made contributions to the parish this past week. Our weekly collections remain essential to the continued operation of our parish. We appreciate everyone who continues to make their contributions to our parish both financially and with your time and talent.

Place your envelopes in the collection box at the entrance to church by the baptismal font, the Parish Office door slot, by mail, bill-pay through your bank or signing up for our Online Giving through our website.

ONLINE GIVING

Online Giving is a convenient way to give to the church

It's easy to sign up at: www.osvhub.com/stferdinandstl

Simply click on "create an account". Then, enter the needed information and submit. It's that simple to give anytime and from anywhere using a computer, Smartphone or table. It can be used for recurring gifts to the church, or send a one-time gift.

If you currently give through St. Sabina, add St. Ferdinand to your account using your same login and password. Once you add a donation to St. Ferdinand, don't forget to stop your recurring donation to St. Sabina. In December, anyone who has not yet change their online giving to St. Ferdinand will be automatically merged. St. Martin de Porres family will have to sign up through St. Ferdinand as we have a different provider than you currently use.

Thought of the Week

Inner peace
begins the moment you choose not to allow another person or event control your emotions.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC

A Heavy Burden, Hard to Carry

"Mommy, you haven't been making any sacrifices."

My daughter was peering through the little opening in the plastic cover of the "sacrifice jar" we made for Lent this year. The repurposed oatmeal container, jazzed up with glitter glue and pictures of St. Therese of Lisieux, was more than half-filled with little slips of paper bearing descriptions of the various sacrifices family members had made for one another.

But she was right: every piece of paper bore the childlike scrawl of herself and her brother. I had not added anything to the sacrifice jar.

"If I wrote down every sacrifice I made for you in just a single day, the jar would explode," I retorted, and even though my daughter giggled, I instantly regretted the comment, sighing as I realized I did it again. I let a snide, self-pitying thought form on my lips and make its way into the world because for a brief moment I thought someone didn't appreciate my (imagine me sniffing injuredly here) hard work.

We sneer at the scribes and the Pharisees as Jesus describes them in the Gospel, lengthening their phylacteries and coveting the places of honor. But then I remember: nobody starts out meaning to be a jerk.

We want to do good things. We try to be holy. But it's hard, that burden weighs heavy on our back.

So, we murmur about it here and there. We stop to catch our breath. We glimpse other people looking at our burden with approval and admiration, and we breathe a little harder, groan a little deeper. And somewhere along the way the burden becomes an idol and our labor a performance. We dare not ask for help bearing it, for we prize too greatly the sweat of our own brow.

"The greatest among you must be your servant." — Matthew 23:11

During the month of November the Church remembers and prays for those who have died; family members and friends. We would like to display, in loving memory, pictures of our parish's deceased loved ones on tables in the Gathering Space.

Beginning this weekend, framed pictures, no larger than 5x7 can be brought to St. Ferdinand or St. Martin de Porres and placed on the display tables. (Please write your name/phone number on the back.)

These pictures will remind us that death does not have the last word. Jesus Christ has conquered death and in Jesus our family and friends continue to live and love!

The pictures will remain until the weekend before Thanksgiving, November 18 & 19, when you can bring them home.

ST. FERDINAND PARISH...
TODAY, TOMORROW, FOREVER

From the Principals Desk

Wrapping up first quarter, we are looking forward to having parent-teacher conferences with our families. We are grateful for the support of our families so far this year. In addition, we want to recognize the amazing support through prayer, treasure, and talent, that we receive from our parish community! The All Saints Academy-St. Ferdinand community is ever grateful for the partnership we have with the parish! We look forward to maintaining that partnership with our newest parishioners that have been joining us through the former St. Sabina and St. Martin de Porres parishes. Welcome to our community, and thank you!
Blessings, Mrs. Anna Davis

Our dismissal procedure is for families to pull into the back parking lot via the drive between the primary building and the Rectory. PK only families park along the primary field to pick up their children at the 2:35 dismissal, and all other families park in rows behind church to wait for their children to be dismissed.
Parking in the front lot is NOT part of the dismissal procedure, due to safety concerns that we have experienced in previous years. The front parking lot is to be used for parish business, and there have been several accidents or close calls with children being hit due to not being seen, or moving while parishioners are driving; students getting lost and parents not being able to find them because they are running late or wandered off; and major disruptions when there are funerals or other parish events where the school families parking in the front lot cause disruptions in the parish function. Thank you to those who have been following the correct procedure.
