Questions of the Week November 7, 2021

We must give to God until we have given enough.

Question for Children: What part of your own possessions are you called on to share?

Question for Youth: When you think of your own life, do you consider yourself to be rich or poor? How do you spend your money? Is there anything you should be doing differently?

Question for Adults: When do you know that you have given away enough?

A FEW WORDS FROM FR. MIKE

While our Archdiocese is actively involved in the “Beacons of Light” Pastoral Planning Project, there is a Synod taking place in Rome. Synods were introduced by St. Pope Paul VI as a way to continue calling on the gifts of the Holy Spirit that helped guide the Second Vatican Ecumenical Council.

An Ecumenical Council involves all the bishops of the world. A Synod involves representatives from the various regional conferences of bishops. Since the early 1970’s each Synod has worked on a particular topic. In the beginning only bishops could take part. In recent years religious and lay people began to become more engaged.

The theme of the present synod is “synodality”: that is the focus is on the consultative process, itself. The underlying Catholic belief is that in Baptism and Confirmation we all receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit. So, somehow, the People of God should be involved in the decision making process for the Church. The preparatory document for the Synod states the intended outcome: “to inspire people to dream about the Church we are called to be, to make people’s hopes flourish, to stimulate trust, to bind up wounds, to weave new and deeper relationships, to learn from one another, to build bridges, to enlighten minds, warm hearts, and restore strength to our hands for our common mission.” (PD, 32)

It is a gift of the Spirit that we are all encouraged to use our spiritual gifts in determining how we will become ever more a Missionary Church.

Fr. Pucke

Mientras nuestra Arquidiócesis está involucrado activamente en el proyecto de planificación pastoral “Faros de Luz”, hay un Sínodo que se está desarrollando en Roma. Los Sínodos fueron introducidos por San Papa Pablo VI como manera de continuar pidiendo los dones del Espíritu Santo que ayudaba guiar el Concilio Vaticano II.

Un Concilio Ecuménico involucra todos los obispos del mundo. Un Sínodo involucra representantes de las varias conferencias regionales de obispos. Pues desde el principio de los ‘70s cada Sínodo ha trabajado un tema particular. En el principio solo obispos participaban. En los últimos años los religiosos y laicos empezaban a estar más involucrados.

El tema del Sínodo actual es “sinodalismo”: o sea el enfoque está en el proceso mismo de consultar. La creencia fundamenta es que en el Bautismo y Confirmación todos recibimos los dones del Espíritu Santo. Pues, en una u otra manera el Pueblo de Dios debe estar involucrado en el proceso de tomar decisiones por la Iglesia. El documento preparativo para el Sínodo expresa la meta esperada: “hacer que germinen sueños, suscitar profecías y visiones, hacer florecer esperanzas, estimular la confianza, vendar heridas, entretejer relaciones, resucitar una aurora de esperanza, aprender unos de otros, y crear un imaginario positivo que ilumine las mentes, enardezca los corazones, dé fuerza a las manos.”

Es el Espíritu Santo que nos anima a todos a utilizar nuestros dones en determinar cómo nos convertiremos aún más en una Iglesia Misionera.

Padre Pucke

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us: "I want you to observe that this poor widow contributed more than all the others who donated to the treasury. They gave from their surplus wealth, but she gave from her want, all that she had to live on."

Ask yourself "Am I only giving from my surplus wealth?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul envelope so that those who are suffering will be able to know God's love and care.
