Where's Fr. Matthew?

By the time you are reading this I will be in Omaha, NE assisting with the Institute For Priestly Formation's summer program for seminarians. Since 1993 seminarians from across the United States have gathered on the campus of Creighton University to take part in this program and deepen their relationship with God as a supplement to their seminary formation.

I was blessed to take part in IPF's summer program in 2006 and am grateful for the ways it has helped me grow in my relationship with God and my priestly identity and vocation. Now I am blessed to be part of IPF's staff and to be able to share with these seminarians some of what I have received.

During this week, the seminarians are taking part in an 8-day silent retreat. This privileged time of encounter with God is the foundation and mainspring of the entire summer program. So, your prayers for the 150 seminarians taking part in this summer's program and their directors (like me) would be greatly appreciated.

It is always amazing to see the incredible things God does for these seminarians, and I am grateful to be able to collaborate in this. If you want to learn more about the Institute for Priestly Formation, check out <https://priestlyformation.org>.

Since I am not able to celebrate Corpus Christi with you this year, I wanted to give you a little glimpse of what I am doing this week.

Until next time, God bless you,
Fr. Matthew

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

JUNE 6, 2021

On the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, we give special honor to Jesus, truly present in the most Blessed Sacrament of the altar. As Catholics, we worship the presence of Jesus Christ in the Eucharist, both during Mass and outside of Mass. We are encouraged to spend time in prayer before the Lord in the Eucharist. Many parishes offer regular exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in a monstrance. We may also choose to visit the church at other times to adore the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the tabernacle.

CNS Photo

Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?

Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist as spiritual nourishment because he loves us. God's whole plan for our salvation is directed to our participation in the life of the Trinity, the communion of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Our sharing in this life begins with our Baptism, when by the power of the Holy Spirit we are joined to Christ, thus becoming adopted sons and daughters of the Father. It is strengthened and increased in Confirmation. It is nourished and deepened through our participation in the Eucharist. By eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ in the Eucharist we become united to the person of Christ through his humanity. . . . In being united to the humanity of Christ we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life. . . .

By being united to Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit dwelling in us, we are drawn up into the eternal relationship of love among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. As Jesus is the eternal Son of God by nature, so we become sons and daughters of God by adoption through the sacrament of Baptism. Through the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation (Chrismation), we are temples of the Holy Spirit, who dwells in us, and by his indwelling we are made holy by the gift of sanctifying grace. The ultimate promise of the Gospel is that we will share in the life of the Holy Trinity. The Fathers of the Church called this participation in the divine life "divinization" (theosis). In this we see that God does not merely send us good things from on high; instead, we are brought up into the inner life of God, the communion among the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. In the celebration of the Eucharist (which means "thanksgiving") we give praise and glory to God for this sublime gift.

THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

When the bread and wine become the Body of Christ, why do they still look and taste like bread and wine?

In the celebration of the Eucharist, the glorified Christ becomes present under the appearances of bread and wine in a way that is unique, a way that is uniquely suited to the Eucharist. In the Church's traditional theological language, in the act of consecration during the Eucharist the "substance" of the bread and wine is changed by the power of the Holy Spirit into the "substance" of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. At the same time, the "accidents" or appearances of bread and wine remain. "Substance" and "accident" are here used as philosophical terms that have been adapted by great medieval theologians such as St. Thomas Aquinas in their efforts to understand and explain the faith. Such terms are used to convey the fact that what appears to be bread and wine in every way (at the level of "accidents" or physical attributes--that is, what can be seen, touched, tasted, or measured) in fact is now the Body and Blood of Christ (at the level of "substance" or deepest reality). This change at the level of substance from bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Christ is called "transubstantiation." According to Catholic faith, we can speak of the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist because this transubstantiation has occurred (cf. Catechism, no. 1376).

Anima Christi Prayer

Soul of Christ, be my sanctification.
 Body of Christ, be my salvation.
 Blood of Christ, fill all my veins.
 Water of Christ's side, wash out my stains.
 Passion of Christ, my comfort be.
 O good Jesus, listen to me.
 In Thy wounds I fain would hide,
 Ne'er to be parted from Thy side,

Guard me, should the foe
 assail me.
 Call me when my life shall fail me.
 Bid me come to Thee above,
 With Thy saints to sing Thy love,
 World without end.
Amen.

The articles "Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?" and "When the bread and wine become the Body of Christ, why do they still look and taste like bread and wine?" are excerpts from The Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Sacrament of the Eucharist: Basic Questions and Answers, which was produced by the Committee on Doctrine of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops and was approved by the full body of bishops at their June 2001 General Meeting.

ACT OF LOVE AND DESIRE BEFORE HOLY COMMUNION

Oh, that I could love You, Jesus, as if I had knelt at Your feet and felt the touch of Your hand on my brow, and heard Your gentle voice that uttered absolutions and gave encouragement to the sick and the unfortunate. Oh, that I could love You, as the poor of Galilee loved You, as Mary Magdalen loved You, as Saint Peter and Saint John, the beloved disciple, loved You, as she, who knew You best, Your blessed Mother, loved You, and, most of all, O Lord, as You have loved me.

Let me at least love You with all my heart and soul and mind and strength. And let my love be worthy of the name, showing itself by confidence, by generosity, by sacrifice, acknowledging cheerfully that all You allow is best for me, counting no cost when I work for You, Giving up gladly what is dear to me when You ask it, when it will serve You better and further the interests of Your Sacred Heart.

Come, my Jesus, crucified for love of me. Come, dear Jesus, in the sacrament of Your love, and be all mine, as I desire to be all Yours. Amen.
