5th Sunday after Trinity

July 4, 2021

Ezekiel 2:2-5

In those days, the Spirit entered into me and set me upon my feet; and I heard him speaking to me. And he said to me, "Son of man, I send you to the people of Israel, to a nation of rebels, who have rebelled against me; they and their fathers have transgressed against me to this very day. The people also are impudent and stubborn: I send you to them; and you shall say to them, 'Thus says the Lord God.' And whether they hear or refuse to hear (for they are a rebellious house) they will know that there has been a prophet among them."

Psalm 123:1-4

R: Our eyes look to the Lord, till he have mercy upon us.

To you I life up my eyes,

 O you who are enthroned in the heavens!

Behold, as the eyes of servants

 Look to the hand of their master.

R: Our eyes look to the Lord, till he have mercy upon us.

As the eyes of a maid

 To the hand of her mistress.

So our eyes look to the Lord our God,

 Till he have mercy upon us.

R: Our eyes look to the Lord, till he have mercy upon us.

Have mercy upon us, O Lord, have mercy upon us,

 For we have had more than enough of contempt.

Too long our soul has been sated

 With the scorn of those who are at ease,

 The contempt of the proud.

R: Our eyes look to the Lord, till he have mercy upon us.

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Brethren: to keep me from being too elated by the abundance of revelations, a thorn was given me in the flesh, a messenger of Satan, to harass me, to keep me from being too elated. Three times I besought the Lord about this, that it should leave me; but he said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." I will all the more gladly boast of my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest upon me. For the sake of Christ, then, I am content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions, and calamities; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Mark 6:1-6

Jesus came to his own country; and his disciples followed him. And on the sabbath he began to teach in the synagogue; and many who heard him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get all this? What is the wisdom given to him? What mighty works are wrought by his hands! Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon, and are not his sisters here with us?" And they took offense at him. And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house."

And he could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands upon a few sick people and healed them. And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went about among the villages teaching.
