Ephesians 1:3-14

Gospel - Mark 6:7-13

Announcements:

- Confirmation will be August 29th!
- Fatima Mass at noon on Tuesday, July 13th, at Trinity Park, with Fr. Wooten.
- Instead of leasing, we are working with the bank to finance the purchase of an actual church building that was offered to us in the SW quadrant of Fort Worth, about 10 minutes from the chancery.
- August 1, 2021, we will host Carter Blood Care for a blood drive. Please comment on FB or MeWe if you are willing to donate.
- Noon Mass: we need 2 non-related people each Sunday to assist Brian with counting the offering for deposit at the bank.
- Men and boys: We're going to go ahead soon and get back to fully reverence, smells, and bells. On-the-job training for now, please talk with Chris Christian or Chris Shirley, our Instituted Acolytes.

Amos 7:12-15

In those days, Amaziah the priest of Bethel said to Amos, "O seer, go, flee away to the land of Judah, and eat bread there, and prophesy there; but never again prophesy at Bethel, for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a temple of the kingdom." Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am no prophet, nor a prophet's son; but I am a herdsman, and a dresser of sycamore trees, and the Lord took me from following the flock, and the Lord said to me, 'Go, prophecy to my people Israel.'"

Psalm 85:8-13

R: Show us your merciful love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Let me hear what God the Lord will speak, for he will speak peace to his people. Surely his salvation is at hand for those who fear him, that glory may dwell in our land.

R: Show us your merciful love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Mercy and faithfulness will meet; righteousness and peace will kiss each other. Faithfulness will spring up from the ground, and righteousness will look down from heaven.

R: Show us your merciful love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Yes, the Lord will give what is good, and our land will yield its increase.

Righteousness will go before him, and make his footsteps a way.

R: Show us your merciful love, O Lord, and grant us your salvation.

Ephesians 1:3-14

Blessed by the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places, even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and blameless before him. He destined us in love to be his sons through Jesus Christ, according to the purpose of his will, to the praise of his glorious grace which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace which he lavished upon us. For he has made known to us in all wisdom and insight the mystery of his will, according to the purpose which he set forth in Christ as a plan for the fulness of time, to unit all things in him, things in heaven and things on earth. In him, according to the purpose of him who accomplishes all things according to the counsel of his will, we who first hoped in Christ have been destined and appointed to live for the praise of his glory. In him you also, who have heard the worth of truth, the Gospel of your salvation, and have believed in him, were sealed with the promised Holy Spirit, who is the guarantee of our inheritance until we acquire possession of it, to the praise of his glory.

Mark 6:7-13

Jesus called to him the Twelve, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over the unclean spirits. He charged them to take nothing for their journey except a staff; no bread, no bag, no money in their belts; but to wear sandals and not put on two tunics. And he said to them, "where you enter a house, stay there until you leave the place. And if any place will not receive you and they refuse to hear you, when you leave, shake off the dust that is on your feet for a testimony against them." So they went out and preached that men should repent. And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick and healed them.
