God has given all of us this mission: "Rescue those being led away to death; hold back those staggering toward slaughter..." (Proverbs 24:11). And so, we are moving right into our missionary territory, building a new center next to an abortion clinic in Ft. Worth! Please join us in this effort. Take one of our baby bottles home and, during Lent, put your sacrificial offerings into it to aid us with the building costs. They will be available Ash Wednesday, and then return them to the Church Divine Mercy Sunday. Be a missionary for life!

Introit - Circumdederunt - Psalm 18:4-8, 1, 2

The sorrows of death came about me; the pains of hell gat hold upon me: and in my tribulation I made my prayer unto the Lord, and he regarded my supplication out of his holy temple.

(Ps) I will love thee, O Lord, my strength: the Lord is my stony rock, my fortress, and my Savior.

Collect of the Day

First Reading: Jeremiah 17:5-8

Thus says the Lord: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his arm, whose heart turns away from the Lord. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit."

Gradual: Psalm 9:9-10, 18-19

The Lord will be a refuge in the time of trouble; and they that know thy Name will put their trust in thee: for thou, Lord, has never failed them that seek thee.

V. For the poor shall not always be forgotten; the patient abiding of the meek shall not perish forever: up, Lord, and let not man have the upper hand.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Brethren: If Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Tract: Psalm 130:1-4

Out of the deep have I called unto thee, O Lord: Lord, hear my voice.

V. O let thine ears consider well: the voice of my complaint.

V. If thou, Lord, wilt be extreme to mark what is done amiss: O Lord, who may abide it?

V. For there is mercy with thee: therefore shalt thou be feared.

Gospel: Luke 6:17-20-26

At that time: Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples and said: "Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you that hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you that weep now, for you shall laugh. Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and revile you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man! Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets. But woe to you that are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you that are full now, for you shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep. Woe to you, when all men speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets."

Offertory: It is a good thing to give thanks unto the Lord: and to sing praises unto thy name, O Most Highest. Hymn 383 Fairest Lord Jesus

Communion: Show thy servant the light of thy countenance, and save me for thy mercy's sake: let me not be confounded, O Lord, for I have called upon thee. Hymn 168 O Sacred Head Sore Wounded

Recessional: 473 Lift High the Cross
