Collect of the Day

First Reading: Acts 2.1-11

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared to them tongues as of fire, distributed and resting on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. And they were amazed and wondered, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea, and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians, we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 104.1ab, 24ac, 29bc-31, 34

R. Lord, send forth your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, O my soul! O Lord my God, you are very great! O Lord, how manifold are your works! The earth is full of your creatures. R.

When you take away their spirit, they die and return to their dust. When you send forth your Spirit, they are created; and you renew the face of the earth. R.

May the glory of the Lord endure forever, may the Lord rejoice in his works. May my meditation be pleasing to him, for I rejoice in the Lord. R.

Second Reading: Romans 8.8-18

Brethren: those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh, you are in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God really dwells in you. Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although your bodies are dead because of sin, your spirits are alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised Christ Jesus from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also through his Spirit who dwells in you. So then, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh- for if you live according to the flesh you will die, but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body you will live. For all who are led by the Spirit of God are sons of God. For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the spirit of sonship. When we cry, "Abba! Father!" It is the Spirit himself bearing witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children, then heirs, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

Gospel Acclamation - Emitte Spiritum - Psalm 104.30

R. Alleluia. Alleluia.

O send forth thy Spirit, and they shall be made: and thou shalt renew the face of the earth

R. Alleluia.

Come, Holy Ghost (genuflect and rise), and fill the hearts of thy faithful people: and kindle in them the fire of your love.

R. Alleluia.

Gospel: John 14.15-16,23b-26

At that time: Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counsellor, to be with you forever. If a man loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our home with him. He who does not love me does not keep my words; and the word which you hear is not mine but the Father's who sent me. These things I have spoken to you, while I am still with you. But the Counsellor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you."
