Announcements:

- Tuesday Schedule Update Starting August 4th – We tried having a longer confession period on Tuesdays for the last year, but the time has simply not been utilized well. We also have very few people who attend the Benediction or Evening Prayer to follow (average is about 5 people), as such, we will be discontinuing the Tuesday evening Exposition, Benediction, and Evening Prayer as of August. We will be adding seasonally more confession times for Lent, particularly during Holy Week, and in Advent.
- The next St. Zélie Catholic Mother's Retreat is on Oct. 10th, 1-4:30pm! Inspired by the beautiful witness of St. Zélie Martin, this retreat offers a peaceful space away from the daily hustle. Come and take some time to rest and build deep friendships with holy, like-minded mothers. Scan the QR code to learn more.
- Women's Book Club – You're invited to join a local chapter of Well-Read Mom, a book club open to women in every stage of life (not just moms!). We will meet monthly in the parish hall beginning this September. If you'd like to learn more, we invite you to attend a brunch in the parish hall on August 22 at 9:30 a.m. to learn from current members about how Well-Read Mom has impacted them and to introduce this year's reading theme, "Year of the Woman." Please contact Ana Saddler at anastasia.saddler@gmail.com with further questions. "Read More, Read Well!"
- OCIA – If you or someone you know is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith and is considering joining the Catholic church, please scan the QR code to join our 2026-2027 OCIA Flocknote. Classes will begin in the fall.

The Most Rev. Steven J. Lopes, Bishop

The Rev. Jon C. Jenkins, Pastor
3550 Southwest Loop 820, Fort Worth, TX 76133

Welcome to Our Visitors!

Thank you for sharing in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass with us today! If you are willing, please introduce yourself to Fr. Jenkins after Mass so he can welcome you, or sign in our Visitor's Log in the main entrance. If you are a Catholic, we receive Holy Communion kneeling and by intinction (both species together on the tongue). If you are not a Catholic, or a Catholic but not receiving, during Communion we invite you to come forward with your arms crossed over your chest and kneel in the presence of Christ. We do not offer blessings at the altar rail, but rather a moment of Adoration in the presence of the Lord.

Processional Hymn: 390 – Praise to the Lord, vs. 1-2Introit – Ecce Deus (Ps 54:4,5,1)

*Behold, God is my helper; the Lord is he that upholdeth my soul: reward thou evil unto mine enemies; destroy them in thine anger, for thy righteousness' sake, O Lord my strength and my defender.
(Ps) Save me, O God, for thy Name's sake: and avenge me in thy strength.
GLORY. Behold...*

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as be rightful: that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-3

Thus says the Lord: "Ho, every one who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live; and I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, merciful love for David."

Gradual – Domine, Dominus noster (Ps 8:1)

*[Read by Acolyte or chanted by a Cantor. Congregation does not respond]
O Lord our Governor: how excellent is thy Name in all the world.
V. Thou hast set thy glory: above the heavens.*

Second Reading: Romans 35, 37-39

Brethren: Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am sure that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

When Jesus heard [of the death of John the Baptist], he withdrew from there in a boat to a lonely place apart. But when the crowds heard it, they followed him on foot from the towns. As he went ashore he saw a great throng; and he had compassion on them, and healed their sick. When it was evening, the disciples came to him and said, "This is a lonely place, and the day is now over; send the crowds away to go into the villages and buy food for themselves." Jesus said, "They need not go away; you give them something to eat." They said to him, "We have only five loaves here and two fish." And he said, "Bring them here to me." Then he ordered the crowds to sit down on the grass; and taking the five loaves and the two fish he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. And they all ate and were satisfied. And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken pieces left over. And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

Offertory – Iustitiae Domini (Ps 19:8,10b,11)

The statutes of the Lord are right, and rejoice the heart: sweeter also than honey and the honey-comb; moreover, by them is thy servant taught.
