Third Sunday of Easter Emmaus Amazement

Today's Gospel has some surprises for the disciples going to Emmaus. The first is that Luke tells us Jesus appeared to them, "but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him" (Luke 24:16). More likely, they were prevented by their lack of faith. They knew that Jesus had died, so this man who looked familiar couldn't be him. All they had heard was that Jesus' body was missing from the tomb.

That leads to the second point. They were amazed at how Jesus explained the scriptures. Even the disciples had not thought of them as predicting Jesus' suffering and death. Yet they seem to know the truth of what Jesus was saying. Their story can help us, too.

If you find you are not always able to see Jesus in the people or events of your life, you may need to stretch your faith. One way to do that is to discuss it with others. The two disciples were stretching their faith as they discussed what they had heard. Your faith will grow as you learn to express it. Another way to stretch your faith is to read and pray over the scriptures. Ask what God is trying to tell you in them. The disciples on the way to Emmaus began to see how Jesus fulfilled the promises found there.

Ask God to help you to see Jesus in other people. Receive Jesus in Communion as often as you can (at least once a week). Trust him and expect to see Jesus both in people around you and in the changes that come into your life. The more you look for Jesus, the easier it is to see him.

Tercer Domingo de Pascua El asombro de Emaús

El Evangelio de hoy presenta algunas sorpresas para los discípulos que iban camino a Emaús. La primera es que Lucas nos cuenta que Jesús se les apareció, "pero los ojos de los dos discípulos estaban velados y no lo reconocieron" (Lucas 24,16). Lo más probable es que su falta de fe les impidiera reconocerlo. Sabían que Jesús había muerto, así que este hombre de aspecto familiar no podía ser él. Lo único que habían oído era que el cuerpo de Jesús no estaba en la tumba.

Esto nos lleva al segundo punto. Se asombraron de la manera en que Jesús les explicaba las Escrituras. Ni siquiera los discípulos habían pensado que estas predijeran el sufrimiento y la muerte de Jesús. Sin embargo, parecían comprender la verdad de lo que Jesús decía. Su historia también puede ayudarnos a nosotros.

Si a veces te resulta difícil ver a Jesús en las personas o en los acontecimientos de tu vida, quizás necesites fortalecer tu fe. Una manera de hacerlo es hablarlo con otros. Los dos discípulos fortalecieron su fe al conversar sobre lo que habían oído. Tu fe crecerá a medida que aprendas a expresarla. Otra manera de fortalecer tu fe es leer y meditar en las Escrituras. Pregúntale a Dios qué te quiere decir a través de ellas. Los discípulos camino a Emaús comenzaron a comprender cómo Jesús cumplió las promesas que se encuentran en ellas.

Pídele a Dios que te ayude a ver a Jesús en los demás. Recibe a Jesús en la Comunión tan a menudo como puedas (al menos una vez por semana). Confía en él y espera ver a Jesús tanto en las personas que te rodean como en los cambios que se presenten en tu vida. Cuanto más busques a Jesús, más fácil te será verlo.
