

6th GRADE HONORS ELA
SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENT

Hello, Universe, Erin Entrada Kelly

If you can't find it in the library, you will have to order this book from Amazon or Barnes and Noble for about $7.99

1. Fill in the chart below for each of the following characters. This chart is a model only - it is way too small to write in comfortably. Make your own.

	adjective describing the personality the character shows the world	excerpt that supports the adjective	adjective describing the character's personality on the inside	excerpt that supports the adjective
Virgil Salinas
Valencia Somerset
Kaori Tanaka
Chet Bullens

2. Select 3 excerpts that support the idea that all of these characters are brought together by fate (the stars, God, kismet, etc).
3. Select 3 excerpts that support the idea that all of these characters come together by their own freewill or by accident.
4. Which do you think is the most important conflict in the story? Man v: man? nature? self? society? or supernatural (fate)? Select 3 excerpts that support your opinion. You will use them in the first two weeks of school to write your first essay.

6th GRADE HONORS ELA SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENT

With your parents, choose ONE of the following Newbery Award winners and complete the activities below.

1. Fill out the vocabulary webs for 5 words you either don't know or find interesting. Use the sample!
2. Fill in at least 3 conflicts for the chart below - you MUST include page number with your excerpt.

CONFLICT	Excerpt #1	Excerpt #2	Excerpt #3
man v man man v self man v society
man v nature
man v supernatural

3. Write a one paragraph book review. It can be serious or funny (use the samples as models), but it must include a brief summary of the novel and include 3 specific examples or excerpts to prove your point about the book.
