SCHOOL 22 UPDATE: Right after February Break, School 22 began Extended Learning Time which operates from 7:50am-8:50am and 3:45pm-5pm. There are 100 kids signed up for the pm session. Classes include yoga, cooking, chess, "girls on the run" and many more. If anyone is interested in volunteering, it is a very simple process: approximately 40 minutes over ZOOM with RCSD Volunteer Coordinator and 40 minutes for the Diocesan SAFE ENVIRONMENT course, also on the computer. Just let Gloria Forgione know if you are interested: 288-1644. Teachers and Children presented stories, singing, dancing in commemoration of Black History Month. Of course there was yummy food! It was very well attended.

Every month there is a breakfast with the Principal, Dr. Bell. Pat Galante has been our representative. We continue to collect toiletries which are very gladly received. We have 3 persons waiting to be placed as volunteers. We really appreciate their perseverance and time!

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!!

Our beautiful Holy Week celebrations have left us filled with joy and gratitude. Thank you so much to all who came to celebrate with us and who actively participated in our liturgies.

Thank you to our Deacons for their generous service and support.

Thank you to our altar servers and their families, who took time during their school break to make our liturgies go smoothly and witness to the whole community the actual practice of the Lord’s commandment to love, that is service.

Thank you to the members of our Liturgy Committee and those who were involved in decorating our churches so beautifully each day. What a wonderful job you did in helping us have a glimpse of God, who is the perfection of beauty, and in helping us understand how God’s work, the beauty of nature (such as that of our natural flowers, bees wax candles, etc.), and human agency (your generous and loving work), collaborate to bring about salvation.

A huge thank you to our music directors and all choir members who helped us raise our souls in prayer through music. As Saint Augustine says: the one who sings, prays twice. Thank you for all the long hours of preparation and the surrender to the gifts of the Spirit working through you to witness to the whole community the unity we are called to, through the unity of your voices and instruments.

Thank you to our proclaimers of the Word who so reverently allowed themselves to become the mouth piece for the Word of God so that the story of salvation could be alive for us, once again.

Thank you to the sacristans and all who worked behind the scenes to prepare for all our liturgies, witnessing to the salvific power of quiet service and a hidden life, reminding us that our small daily tasks, when done with love, become extraordinary, and bring many blessings into this world.

Thank you to those who take care of our altar linens, corporals and purificators, who reverently prepare these consecrated cloths for the celebration of the Most Holy Eucharist, witnessing to us all the reverence we owe the Blessed Sacrament and the care we ought to put in receiving Communion with an open, loving and grateful heart.

Thank you to those who coordinated and led Morning Prayer, the Stations of the Cross (especially the Good Friday walk), and the Seven Sorrows of Mary Rosary. You helped us to enter more deeply into the Triduum, allowing us to better appreciate the shocking, strange, and powerful events of Holy Week.

The Lord is Risen!, and we know He is because the gifts of his Spirit are fully alive and well in our parish communities in so many generous people. Thank you all for witnessing to the Resurrection, for helping us see that He is alive, that we have hope!

Pope’s Prayer Intention for April

For a culture of peace and non-violence

We pray for the spread of peace and non-violence, by decreasing the use of weapons by States and citizens.

Each year the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention each month.

You are invited to answer the Holy Father's request and to join with many people worldwide in praying for this intention each month.
