We were created to KNOW God: Faith Formation News and Events

Our Own Road to Emmaus

This weekend, we hear the beautiful Gospel passage of the disciples on the road to Emmaus and their encounter with the Risen Christ. If we take a minute and reflect on it, we will notice that our celebration of the Mass follows the same process we find in this Gospel. The celebration of the Mass is our intimate encounter with the Risen Christ.

God meets us on the way, comes near to our confusion, despair, and brokenness

After the Crucifixion, a couple of the disciples leave Jerusalem, sad and confused. Jesus tenderly joins them on the way and patiently listens to them. In life, we face many challenges, we struggle with our brokenness and that of others, and sometimes we feel confused, we cannot figure out what God is doing. It might even seem like God has failed. In the celebration of the Mass, Jesus comes tenderly to meet us as we begin our liturgy, and we are asked to bring to our minds and hearts, our brokenness, our sinfulness, the things that are hurting us. Jesus listens patiently as we ask for his help: Lord have mercy, Christ have mercy. We are reassured of his love and forgiveness through the words of the priest: May Almighty God forgive us our sins and bring us to everlasting life. Jesus says: I hear you. I see your pain. Do not worry, I forgive you. I will heal you. I will give you life.

God takes the time to help us understand how God is working in our lives

The disciples cannot understand why the Messiah had to die. They wonder if he even was the Messiah? Jesus takes the time to explain to them the Scriptures and to help them see the events of their lives in the light of the Scriptures—to see what God is doing in their lives. In our celebration of the Mass, once we have been reassured that Jesus is with us in our brokenness and will heal us, he then patiently helps us to see the events of our lives in the light of Scripture and God’s everlasting life. This process happens through the Liturgy of the Word: the readings and the homily.

Once invited, God enters our life even more intimately and shares a meal with us

The disciples still do not know that this man walking with them is the Risen Christ, but they feel a desire to spend more time with him, and they invite him to spend the night with them. As they share the intimate moment of the meal and he breaks the bread, they finally see him as the Risen Christ. Everything falls into place. Their minds and hearts are opened. In our celebration of the Mass, after the homily, maybe not everything makes perfect sense to us. Maybe we are still not at the point of being able to see our lives in God’s eyes and to truly see the Risen One at work with us and in us, but we are at least intrigued. We want more of Jesus. God takes that invitation. Jesus lays down his life for us, breaks the bread of his Body and Blood with us as we are seated around the table as friends. We come forth for Communion and we receive God. We become one with the Risen Christ. It is clear we are not alone; we are beloved by God to the point that he is one with us. We can trust again.

Nourished, we are sent forth to share with others the good news of the Resurrection

After their meal with the Risen Christ the disciples run back to Jerusalem to tell the others that Jesus is risen. Like Jesus did with them, they help the others understand the Scriptures and how God was at work in the events of their lives—how they are not alone and Jesus is truly with them and truly the Messiah working out their salvation. In our celebration of the Mass, after Communion, we are sent forth in peace: the peace of knowing that Jesus is risen and victorious, that he is with us, that in him, our lives make sense and all shall be well. We are sent forth to glorify the Lord by our lives, to show others by our words and deeds that God is with us, that Christ is risen!

Looking for some help

We are looking for a few volunteers willing to help with the Liturgy of the Word for Children in English that happens during the 11:45am Sunday Mass at Saint Michael. During this Mass, as the adults listen to the Readings and homily in Spanish, school-age children listen to the readings in English and how they apply to their daily life. We are hoping to create four teams of two people to lead these sessions, meaning you would help out once-a-month. All material will be provided - we just need your willing hands and heart. To find out more, contact Dawn in the parish office: dawn.burdick@dor.org or 585-622-4594.
