

A Blessing for Mothers

Father, we give you thanks for the many gifts you have given us: the gift of life and the gift of those who love us. Today we especially thank you for the gift of our mothers.

We give thanks for our Mothers who have died and for the unique way they revealed your love for us. We ask that you bless them and keep them in your care until the time comes for us to join them in your Kingdom.

We ask your blessing upon the Mothers who are unable to be with us here today. May they know how much we love and care for them.

We pray for birth mothers who have loved their children so much they have shared the gift of their child with those who could better care for them and their needs, and give them a secure home. And we pray for adoptive mothers, that they may always know their special role of being a true mother, a revelation of God's love for their children.

We ask your blessing upon Mothers who have lost children through stillbirth, crib death, accident, tragedy, war, and violence that they may have your continuing strength and courage.

We ask your blessing, too, upon those who would very much like to be mothers but who are having trouble having a child.

We ask your blessing upon the Mothers standing before us here. Give them the strength to live the faithful and loving lives you call them to live. Protect and guide them. Keep them in your care.

We ask this Blessing in the name of Jesus, our Lord. Amen.

The Voice of the Pastor

Thank you, Thank you, Thank you!

I am so happy to be back home, as I return from home. Jesus was not kidding when he said: to those who leave father, mother, sister, brother... to follow me I will give many mothers, sisters, brothers. So yes, I both left home and came back home. This spiritual friendship, this spiritual family reality, has been very clear to me in the past months as I remembered you in all my prayers and Masses, and as I felt strengthened by your prayers for me. It was also very clear in all the beautiful messages I got from many of you. Even though I was not able to reply, it meant the world to me to receive each and every one of those messages. So, for being my spiritual mothers, sisters and brothers, thank you, thank you, thank you!

I have also heard about all the wonderful things that have happened in the parish in the last 6 months, which are no surprise to me, since you are such an amazing community and we have such special people on our ministry team. Yet I do want to thank each and every one of you for all the life and gifts you bring to the parish. I want to very specially thank Fr. Bob, Fr. Jack, Fr. Jesús, our deacons, all of our office volunteers, and Dawn for all they did to keep the life of the parish seamlessly and improving every day. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

God has done great things, and you all have allowed God to work God’s wonders in you, and through you!

On my end these past months were also an intense time of grace and physical, spiritual, and emotional healing. They were a big first step in a number of life changes I needed to make, and that I will need to continue, so that I can stay healthy to serve the Lord.

How much did I improve? I'll know once I'm active in the ministry once more. For now I can tell you that I'm moving more easily and I am in much less pain.

As I continue on this journey of healing—isn't this life for all of us a journey of healing and becoming whole, by God’s abundant grace and unconditional love, the support of others and our willingness to collaborate in the process— I will need your continued support in 3 areas (haven’t you missed my three point structure?):

- 1. I need to be intentional in what I eat, so as much as I love all the food you bring to the Rectory, I ask that you please do not bring me food. I will not be able to eat it and I really hate it when food goes to waste.
- 2. I need to learn to say no to some things so that I can protect some time for selfcare, so please understand if I have to say no some times. Know that I will always do all I can to love you and serve you, yet it is a disservice to you, if I do not take care of myself.
- 3. Please continue to support me with your prayers.

I am sorry for any suffering that my absence my have caused, yet I am very grateful to all for allowing me this time. A time in which through my family and friends and many medical professionals, God has done great things and I rejoice!

A.M.D.G., Father Daniel

Pope's Prayer Intention for May

For church movements and groups

We pray that Church movements and groups may rediscover their mission of evangelization each day, placing their own charisms at the service of needs in the world.

Each year the Holy Father asks for our prayers for a specific intention each month. You are invited to answer the Holy Father's request and to join with many people worldwide in praying for this intention each month.
