THE TRUE STORY OF AN APOSTLE OF YOUTH

This classic film is about St. John Bosco, the beloved nineteenth Italian priest who sought out the homeless youth of Turin to help them have a better life. His feast day is January 31. He overcame many obstacles, but nothing could stop him from rescuing the poor and outcast children to give them a home, teach them work skills and catechize them in the Catholic Faith. Blessed with a creative imagination and a great sense of humour, Bosco had a winning way with youth and was a brilliant educator. ## GOSPEL REFLECTION

“Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing” – today and every day the Scripture is being fulfilled should we have the ears to hear and the eyes to see. The Word of God is alive, as it has been in the beginning, is now and ever shall be. Jesus spoke in the synagogue, “Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place.” Are we able to hear and receive words of wisdom, caution and consolation from those around us? Are we open to people who its hardest for us to hear from? To see reality as it is, we must start with the hardest reality of all to face—that of sincerely seeing ourselves—to see that we are little, poor and humble. Only then can we hope to look upon our neighbour with humanity, with tenderness, and for the true dignity instilled in their very being, with reverence for the God who dwells within. This type of deep self-knowledge, awareness of our gifts and shortcomings, and this profound love of the other transcends division, misunderstanding, disagreement. This is how we prepare our hearts to receive the “words of the prophet”, the word of truth and life in our hearts, and there may it grow and flourish. - Excerpted from cccb.ca

WHAT IS A SYNOD AND HOW DOES IT WORK?

In this third reflection on synodality in the early Church, we can look to the Council of Jerusalem, in Acts 15: 6-35. In this passage we read of the dispute that arose among the believers causing division within the Church. The apostles and elders met together and debated the troubling situation. Peter, Paul, Barnabas, and James each spoke in turn and we read “the whole assembly kept silence and listened to Barnabas and Paul” (15:12). After this time of listening, James, quoting the prophets Amos, Jeremiah, and Isaiah, made a decision that would bring a peaceful resolution to the conflict. “Then the apostles and elders, with the consent of the whole church” (15:22) set into action James’ decision “for it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us” (15:28). Here we see that the apostles and elders conferred with one another but that they brought the matter to the whole community of believers who heard the debate and listened attentively (or with active listening). Active listening is what we are called to in the synod - listening to one another and the Holy Spirit. As a parish community, we are being asked to come together, like the apostles, elders, and the whole assembly of the ancient Church, to listen to one another speak about our experience of what it means to be part of the Church, to speak about our joys and sorrows, our blessings, and our hopes for the future. This is an exciting time for our parish and our Church. I encourage everyone to become engaged in this process of dialogue and listening, and prayer and discernment. If you are interested in being a part of the synod in our parish. Please email: synodfallowfield@gmail.com. — Father Paul

WORLD DAY OF CONSECRATED LIFE

St. John Paul II established the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life in 1997 to be celebrated in conjunction with the feast of the Presentation of the Lord (February 2), also known as Candlemas, which highlights the fact that Christ is the light of the world through the symbolic lighting of candles. "Similarly, consecrated men and women are called to spread the light and love of Jesus Christ through their unique witness of selfless service, such as caring for the poor, the contemplative work of prayer, or through their professional careers." Please remember the religious and consecrated in our archdiocese who have given their lives to God in service in a particular way. We are indebted to their ministry, their witness and their commitment to serve the Lord with all of their lives. May God reward them for their witness and ministry!

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR FEBRUARY

We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women; thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.
