ALPHA PROGRAM

Alpha is a series of sessions that freely explore the big questions of life. It's an opportunity to meet new people and discover more about the Christian faith. This program is being offered at St. Patrick's, Fallowfield, in the Monseigneur Paul Baxter Centre with Anne-Marie Goodman. Our program will begin on Thursday January 5, at 7:00 p.m. and continue on Thursday evenings until March 16. For a link to the three-minute promotional video click on here: <https://player.vimeo.com/video/184067598>. To register, please e-mail alphastpatricksfallowfield@gmail.com.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Today as a Church, we conclude our liturgical year and celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. The Gospel we proclaim shows the great mystery of our faith: In the moment of his crucifixion, Jesus is shown to be King and Savior of all.

Luke's Gospel has been loaded with surprises: the poor are rich, sinners find salvation, the Kingdom of God is found in our midst. Here we see the greatest surprise of all. We are confronted with the crucified Jesus, whom faith tells us is King and Savior of all. The irony is that the inscription placed on the cross, perhaps in mockery, contains the profoundest of truth. As the leaders jeer, the thief crucified by his side recognizes Jesus as Messiah and King, and finds salvation.

Jesus is King, but not the kind of king we might have imagined or expected. His kingship was hidden from many of his contemporaries, but those who had the eyes of faith were able to see. As modern disciples of Jesus, we, too, struggle at times to recognize Jesus as King. Today's Gospel invites us to make our own judgment. With eyes of faith, we, too, recognize that Jesus, the crucified One, is indeed King and Savior of all. Excerpted from Sunday Connections, loyolapress.com

ALL SOULS INTENTIONS

During November, we remember our deceased relatives and friends, through Parish All Souls Intentions Masses. Intentions are placed on the altar for the month, and the Intentions are said throughout the year at weekday Masses. Special All Souls envelopes can be found at the church entrance and in the parish office.

If you are unable to come to the parish, you can mail-in a donation from home, or send an e-transfer to finance@stpatricksfallowfield.com. For e-transfers, please comment that it is an All-Souls Intention, providing the names of those we are praying for and your name. Please use 'souls' as the security word.

FAITH FORMATION

The Patron Saint of Music and Musicians - The feast day for St. Cecilia is Tuesday, November 22. The compelling audio drama "Ode to St. Cecilia" tells the story of the modest young woman from Rome whose life transcends time to influence poets, composers, sculptors, and painters. Cecilia has inspired scores of artists over the past 20 centuries. Set against the backdrop of the great sacrifice of her martyrdom, it is ultimately a celebration of the important role of the arts in showing us the love of God through profound beauty. Listen to the "Ode to St.

Cecilia" radio theatre presentation at <https://watch.formed.org/ode-to-saint-cecilia>.

Prepare Yourself this Advent - Grow closer to our Lord in the manger this Advent season with Dr. Gray as he leads you through the Mass readings every day during the Advent and Christmas seasons. Sign up to receive these daily reflections by email at daily.formed.org. If you wish to have access to FORMED's vast library of Catholic resources and are not yet a parish subscriber, go to <https://formed.org> and sign up as a parishioner. Please contact Sandy Duff at apduffngb@gmail.com for more information or if you are having problems signing up.
