THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. - Jn 3:16-17

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2003, 1998, 1970 CCC, SCLP on your 20th anniversary of Ordination into Priesthood. We are great for the gift of your vocation and your faithful service to the Church and our parish family.

20 Years

Weekly Meditation

*The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with all of you.
(2 Corinthians 13:13)*

This familiar verse from St. Paul's second letter to the Corinthians is one of the clearest passages in the New Testament that talks about the Holy Trinity. And while Paul's prayer does not even begin to exhaust the depth and complexity of the Trinity, it can certainly give us some insight. So let's ponder these words to explore how each Person of the Trinity might want to be with all of us today.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus has made God's saving grace available to us. He pours out that grace in the form of mercy from God for us sinful human beings. He manifests that grace every time he forgives and heals and restores us. And he offers that grace to you, anew, each day.

The love of God. Love is the foundation of everything God the Father does. Why did he create? Out of love. Why did he send his Son into the world? Because he loved us and wanted to redeem us. Why did he send the Holy Spirit? Because his love naturally and freely flows outward toward us. It's a creative and generous and expansive love. And your heavenly Father wants to fill you with that love today.

The fellowship of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit, the third Person of the Trinity, is the communion of love between the Father and the Son. Because, in a sense, he is fellowship, he gathers us into that communion. He enflames our hearts with love for God. He draws us out of isolation or sin and into unity with God and with the people around us. That's the "fellowship" he offers you today—fellowship with him and with his people.

As you join your fellow parishioners in worshipping this triune God at Mass today, know that he is pouring out his grace on "all of you" (2 Corinthians 13:13). So go ahead and open your heart to receive it.

*"Holy Trinity, you are a mystery.
Help me to say yes to your work in my life today."*

Sister Parish Connection

The Heart to Heart Mission Team of St. Ignatius has developed a wonderful relationship with our Sister Parish, St. Vincent Ferrer, in Pacuan, Philippines. The first trip occurred in 2009 with Fr. Victor and 3 parishioners. Since then, five additional teams have traveled to Pacuan and a team from St. Vincent traveled to Annandale in 2013. The vision/mission is to share, experience, and grow in our Catholic faith with one another. For the next few weeks, we would like to share experiences of those who have traveled.

Please prayerfully consider making the journey to meet our brothers and sisters in Pacuan. For more information contact the parish office.

Mari Arfsten, 2011

"My visit to our sister parish is an experience that I will not soon forget. The people there are so generous with their time and resources little that they have. The occasion that touched me most was when my hostess brought together her whole household as well as employees for a bible lesson. It was humbling for me to see the faith of these people. It reminded me stories in the bible where whole households came to believe in Christ. These people live out their faith every day."

Marriage Banns

Gospel Meditation

In my experience, one of the peculiarities of being a man is the somewhat unlikely ability to look into the mirror, no matter how out of shape he may be, and declare with full confidence: "Looking good, buddy!" Ask a man. He'll probably confirm it.

Therein lies a mystery. You might think I refer to man's ability to deceive himself or his propensity toward vainglory. But in this case, I refer to the mystery of a healthy and proper sense of self-love. We human beings (both men and women) have the utterly weird ability to look at ourselves as if we were another. Then we tend to love this "other." Then, somehow, that love becomes a bond between the two. We are three and yet one.

This Sunday is Trinity Sunday. We ponder anew that God in His unity is a play of multiplicity: Lover, Beloved, and shared Love. Or, as we also proclaim, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. If we allow it, this mystery heals our temptation toward self-hatred and destruction. We all know how awful it is to look into the mirror and not know the person we see, or, equally bad, to know and hate who we see. Jesus, the Son of God, draws us into the dynamics of authentic self-knowledge and self-love. Perhaps we could ask the Holy Trinity this Sunday to teach us to truly look at ourselves and to properly love who we see looking back.
