A MESSAGE FROM FATHER KEVIN

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

I want to extend a heartfelt thank you to Maria Charowsky, Christine Arthur, and the religious education team, for their tremendous dedication to our mission of making disciples, particularly of our young people.

Last Sunday, Bishop Saporito confirmed 26 candidates, a milestone made possible by our devoted teachers: Cherrie Cacas, Nicole Otto, Mariliza Tong, and Mary Beth Buckley. I also want to thank our newly confirmed and their parents for their dedication and support.

To all of you, thank you!

In the words of Saint Paul, "I give thanks to my God always, remembering you in my prayers" (Ephesians 1:16).

There's a lot of excitement surrounding St. Pius X.

I'm constantly seeing new faces. On Monday, for example, three new families joined our parish, two of whom have young children!

As our community grows, we must make every effort to welcome one another. As Saint Benedict once wrote, "All guests who present themselves are to be welcomed as Christ, for he himself will say, 'I was a stranger and you welcomed me.'"

For this reason, we've developed a new ministry: "Welcome and Hospitality." This ministry is charged with welcoming new parishioners, sending them information about our parish, greeting everyone at the beginning of Mass, organizing dinners, nametag Sundays, and other community events.

Kathy Sheridan, a long-time parishioner, is leading this new ministry. If you're interested in getting involved, please email her at: kmsheridan119@aol.com. We already have several volunteers, but can always use another helping hand!

This ministry will be critical for us moving forward as a community of faith, as it supports the first pillar of our three-fold mission: "Building Community."

All are welcome here at St. Pius X. As active members of this faith community, our mission is to share that belief – in word and deed.

Sincerely in Christ,

Fr. Kevin Kilgore

Dear Fellow Parishioners of and Visitors to St. Pius X,

While it seems much longer ago, the first meeting of the newly organized St. Pius X Parish Pastoral Council was held on March 9th of this year. Currently in a formation phase, we are a council small in number. Each of us was tapped by Fr. Kevin to bring dedication, time and talent against the objectives: to build the parish ministry structure; to be the ears of the parish; to develop immediate plans through long-term strategy, and to be a sounding board for and advisor to Fr. Kevin.

In a period of three months much has been accomplished, and there is much more to do. Based on the survey responses of the parishioners and the guidance of the Archdiocese, we will target three strategies over the summer months: Youth Programs; Welcome and Hospitality Ministry, and Church and Grounds Infrastructure. This is not to say that other ministries will not be active. The Parish Pastoral Council Schematic below includes active ministries and committees – newly-established and continuing – that have Ministry or Committee Heads identified. Bylaws, charters, procedures, calendars, and volunteer needs are being developed.

I look forward to providing updates quarterly as to the progress of the Parish Pastoral Council and as milestones are reached. In the meantime, and on behalf of the parish, I want to thank all those who have volunteered for Ministries and Committees. I personally would like to thank the members of the Council who have committed time, thought and energy to this parish effort as well as to the Parish Staff that supports us all.

ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 17:22–24

God will restore the kingdom of Judah, as symbolized by the cedar. The deed is emphasized by the words, “As I, the Lord have spoken, so will I do.”

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 5:6–10

Paul acknowledges “that we are, in a sense, away from the Lord while in this life and bound to our bodies.” We will be fully united with God in the next life, if we please him in this life.

Gospel: Mark 4:26–34

The reign of God is compared to a mustard seed which is the smallest of seeds yet grows to become the largest of shrubs. Similarly, God’s community grows gradually until it becomes large and strong.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ June 13, 2021

“We are always courageous, and we would rather leave the body and go home to the Lord. Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, so that each one may receive recompense, according to what he did in the body, whether good or bad.”

The words of St. Paul to the Corinthians are truly welcome. We have been reminded constantly during the past fifteen months of the virus and death. The pandemic should teach us to think of that day which awaits us all. We do so, not out of fear, but aware that we are going home to our home.

There are many things in life we anticipate with joy and look forward to, such as a wedding, the birth of a child, a homecoming. Paul’s teaching is of the homecoming, with recompense and reward. As he speaks he wants us to be sure we are living the life of grace, free of sin and in union with the Lord. ‘We aspire to please Him.’ That is why we are courageous, or as the hymn says, ‘Blessed assurance, Jesus is mine.’
