GOD IS A GOD - WITH - US

Again and again you see how Jesus opts for what is small, hidden, and poor, and accordingly declines to wield influence. His many miracles always serve to express his profound compassion with suffering humanity; never are they attempts to call attention to himself. As a rule, he even forbids those he has cured to talk to others about it. And as Jesus' life continues to unfold, he becomes increasingly aware that he has been called to fulfill his vocation in suffering and death. In all of this, it becomes plain to us that God has willed to show his love for the world by descending more and more deeply into human frailty.

A MESSAGE FROM FATHER KEVIN

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

As I write this pastoral letter, the preparations for Cardinal Tobin's visit are underway! A special thank you to Kathy Sheridan, Roberta Manganaro, Kathy Shields, Cilia and Natalie Galasso, Pat Boscia and Terry George for helping to set up the narthex and purchase the food for our reception. Thanks to Janet Natale, parish secretary, for creating a beautiful slideshow filled with parish memories made over the last few years, which will be displayed on our narthex screens.

I remember when the Lord first placed the desire in my heart for World Youth Day. It was almost a year ago to the day. It seemed impossible, but I'm humbled and very excited to announce that 43 pilgrims will be journeying to Lisbon, Portugal, this summer! This has been made possible, in part, because of the $70,000 in scholarships we've raised from the Archdiocese and friends. World Youth Day changed my life, and I believe God is doing something beautiful in the heart of each pilgrim journeying with us.

I also want to thank in advance all who came to Mass to pray and celebrate with Cardinal Tobin. The explosive growth within our community is something we're all responsible for. These have been the most fruitful and fulfilling years of my priesthood – the best part being you, dear parishioners, many of whom I've also come to know as friends.

\***

At the 8 am Mass last week, I thanked Barbara Ramig, who has led our Mommy and Me Ministry for the last several months. She and Roberta Manganaro have worked hard to create fun-filled activities for our little ones. This week, they hosted an Easter Egg Hunt with live bunny rabbits! The kids were delighted. There are nearly 30 little ones benefitting from this new ministry.

Given Mommy and Me's growth, we are now asking for help. With the warmer weather, the children are able to play outside. However, we are short on supplies. If anyone has any of the following items and would like to donate them – either new or gently used – please contact the parish office:

Little Tike Playhouse / Easy Score Basketball set / Push and Ride Racer / Bubble Lawn Mower / Teeter Totter Seesaw / Cozy Coupe large push car.

As we turn to Palm Sunday, I pray this will be a spiritually fruitful week for all as we "journey together with Jesus" to Jerusalem, Calvary, and thanks be to God, the empty tomb on Easter Sunday.

In Christ,

Fr. Kevin Kilgore

The Knights invite Catholic men over 18 to become members of the Knights. To join go to KOFc.ORG/JOIN or to request more information about membership, contact our membership director at MEMBERSHIP@KOFc9021.ORG, or at 201-233-5993. ## ARCHDIOCESE OF NEWARK

2023 LENTEN REGULATIONS

1. The days of both Fast and Abstinence during Lent are Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily His Resurrection. The other Fridays of Lent are days of Abstinence.

On a day of Fast, only one (1) full meal is permitted, and two (2) smaller meals, which, if added together, would not exceed the main meal quantity.

Those between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast.

On a day of Abstinence, no meat may be eaten. Those who have reached the age of 14 are obliged by the law of abstinence.

2. The obligation to observe the law of Fast and Abstinence "substantially", or as a whole, is a serious obligation.
3. The Fridays of the year, outside of Lent, are designated as days of penance, but each individual may substitute for the traditional abstinence from meat some other practice of voluntary self-denial as penance.
4. The time for fulfilling the Paschal Precept (Easter Duty*) extends from the First Sunday of Lent, February 26th to the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, June 4, 2023.

**Canon 920, §1. All the faithful, after they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, are bound by the obligation of receiving Communion at least once a year.*

PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

SUNDAY, APRIL 2, 2023

First Reading: Isaiah 50:4-7

In a tone of quiet sadness, Isaiah describes the buffets and insults given to the Suffering Servant. The passage ends on a note of hope.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

In exultant tones, Paul tells the Philippians to rejoice because Christ became man, died on the cross, rose from the dead, and sits triumphantly at the right hand of the Father.

Gospel: Matthew 26:14—27:66

This is the solemn narrative of the passion and death of our Lord Jesus Christ. Matthew recounts the treachery and betrayal of Judas and then describes the events of the Last Supper, culminating in the institution of the Eucharist. Jesus endures the Agony in the Garden; he is then brought before Caiaphas and Pilate and condemned to death. After His resurrection, the centurions shouted, "Clearly this was the Son of God!"

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"And if anyone should say anything to you, reply, 'the Master has need of them.'... Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not deem equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross."

Interesting the statement 'the Master has need of them.' There is a reversal of roles, for God does not need us, but we have a never ending need of Him. That is why we begin the solemn week, not for His sake, but for ours.

We embark on a week we call holy, but through our prayer, sacrifice and action, we make these days truly holy. As I reflect upon the words of Paul, a hymn of the early church, I am forced to consider how great was the Father's love in sending Jesus as our needed Savior and as He poured out His blood for us, He gave it all, because we needed it. He became one of us, except for sin, to rescue us and bring us back to the Father, who was and is waiting for us to respond. The reversal of roles also includes the fact the 'Master has need of us' to continue His mission. Are you ready?
