WISE MEN & WOMEN STILL SEEK HIM

Wise women also came.
The fire burned in their wombs
long before they saw the flaming star in the sky.
They walked in shadows,
trusting the path would open under the light of the moon.

Wise women also came,
seeking no directions,
no permission from any king.

They came by their own authority,
their own desire, their own longing.
They came in quiet, spreading no rumors,
sparking no fears to lead to innocents' slaughter,
to their sister Rachel's inconsolable lamentations.

Wise women also came, and they brought useful gifts:
water for labor's washing, fire for warm illumination,
a blanket for swaddling.

Wise women also came, at least three of them,
holding Mary in the labor, crying out with her in the birth pangs, breathing ancient blessings into her ear.

Wise women also came, and they went,
as wise women always do, home a different way.

A Message from Father Kevin

My brothers and sisters in Christ,

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

I want to assure you of my prayers for you and your families. May the Lord watch over your footsteps, leading you into a better, brighter, healthier 2021.

I hope you found our celebration of Christmas fruitful. Once again, I want to thank our parish staff, the Knights of Columbus, and Mark Ley who worked so hard on decorating our church, as well as Tom Calabro who livestreamed our 6 pm Christmas Eve Mass. We had hoped to livestream two other Masses but had a few technical difficulties.

I also want to thank Sara Armstrong who organized beautiful music at each Mass. As our new Director of Music, I'm confident Sara will continue to bring in exceptionally talented musicians, including our own Janet Natale, who will lift our spirits during Mass. If you have any suggestions for music, please do let Sara know.

As Saint Augustine once said, "To sing is to pray twice." Thank you, Sara, for helping us to pray so well.

My first Christmas here was certainly a memorable one!

While the music and liturgy were very prayerful, all our Masses on Christmas day were celebrated in the dark! That terribly powerful windstorm knocked down a tree right outside of church on Christmas Eve, leading to a full day without power.

But, again, our parish staff pulled it together. Many of you who attended even commented on the beauty of a candle lit Mass. The symbolism certainly was not lost on me! As friends of Jesus, we are all called to be a light in the darkness, to bring hope and healing to a world so desperately in need.

Part of what has inflicted such darkness on our world is the continued threat of the Coronavirus. I am grateful we were able to organize a testing site here at Saint Pius X on December 21, where 180 people were tested.

It was so heartwarming for me to hear about families finally able to get together for the holidays, with the peace of mind knowing they were "negative."

We will be offering free COVID testing once again on Monday, January 4th from 3-7 pm. All you need is a state issued ID, such as a driver's license, and a health insurance card (only if you have health insurance). Please spread the word. ALL ARE WELCOME.

Turning to the New Year, I look forward to learning more of your names and faces, and with the grace of God, becoming part of your stories in 2021.

Yours in Christ,

Fr. Kevin Kilgore

As the dawn breaks on anew year,
let us give thanks for all we hold dear:
our health, our family and our friends.
Each new year
extends an invitation to re-enter the process of transformation,
for self and for our world.
We stand at the threshold,
looking back and looking ahead.
This involves letting go of the past and an intentional welcoming of future possibilities.
We will make choices and decisions
in the coming year
that will create our reality.
The Holy One continues to awaken us.
We have what we need to bring peace within ourselves and our world.
Welcome the future!
Welcome the new year!

The Epiphany of the Lord

First Reading: Isaiah 60:1–6
Isaiah speaks poetically of the coming of the Lord. He describes how "darkness covers the earth" but light and glory appear over God's chosen people.

Second Reading: Ephesians 3:2–3a, 5–6
Paul tells the Ephesians that the Jews and Gentiles are now co-heirs of the promises God has made. He explains that both groups are now members of one body through Jesus Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 2:1–12
After Jesus' birth, three astrologers from the east came to Jerusalem and inquired about the newborn king of the Jews. King Herod became greatly angered and asked the astrologers to bring him more information about the child once they had found him, so that he too could pay homage to the infant. However, Herod's true plan was to kill Jesus. The wise men were warned in a dream not to return to him and they took a different route to return home.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly
Most Holy Name Catholic Church, Garfield, NJ

Epiphany of the Lord ~ January 3, 2021

"After Jesus' birth in Bethlehem of Judea during the reign of King Herod, astrologers from the east arrived one day in Jerusalem inquiring: 'Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We observed his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.'... they were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house, found the child with Mary, his mother."

The visitors were looking for Jesus. They brought gifts portraying His role as priest, prophet, and king. They depended on a star to lead them to their Savior.

The Magi event is so familiar, found in scripture, filled with traditions. Their search ended with a great discovery and blessing. In the gospels the question is asked, 'what are you looking for?' or 'who is it that you seek?'

We are like the wise men, looking for the Lord. Where can we find Him? Right here, right now. Jesus makes Himself known to us, if we bring the gift of ourselves, if we wish to pay Him homage. It requires humility, honesty, and sincerity as we recognize Him as savior of all humankind.

The Epiphany of the Lord | Matthew 2:1-12

The 3 are called wise men, kings, or magi - they saw and understood that the baby Jesus was truly God. They took a different route home and did not go back to Herod.
