BASILICA

Pastor's Desk

The readings for the 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time focus on the law and commandments. It's about our calling to live according to the commandments of God's law.

The first reading tells us to choose life by obeying God's commandments. We are reminded to make good use of our freedom and to facilitate this, God gave us the commandments.

The second reading reminds us that God's wisdom is far greater than our own. So, we have to avoid everything which undermines our faith, hope and love for God.

In the gospel Jesus tells us he has come to fulfill the law, not to abolish it. We are encouraged by Our Lord Jesus Christ to live our Faith with a new wisdom, interior depth and generosity, guarding what has been entrusted to us.

According to Jesus, the Law isn't merely about external principles. It isn't an external imposition, on the contrary. Actually, God's Law corresponds to the ideal of perfection that is deeply rooted in the heart of every man.

This is the reason why they who keep the commandments not only achieve the accomplishment of their human aspirations, but also the perfection of Christianity, or, in Jesus's words, achieves the perfection of the Kingdom of God. «Whoever obeys them and teaches others to do the same will be great in the kingdom of heaven» (Mt 5, 19).
