The Pastor's Desk

Today's Gospel, Matthew 13:24-43, invites us to reflect on the parable of the wheat and the weeds. Jesus says, "The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field... but while men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat" angelsnsaints.com.

In this parable, the "good seed" represents the children of the kingdom — those who have received the Gospel and are called to live in holiness. The "weeds" are the children of the evil one, sown by the devil, who seeks to corrupt and harm the good work of God. The "enemy" is not a random force but a deliberate agent of evil, acting when the watchmen — the faithful — are asleep[...]

The parable teaches that evil is allowed to grow alongside good so that the harvest — the end of the age — will be complete[...]

The parable is both a warning and a promise. It warns that evil will be present in the world until the end, but it promises that God will bring about a final and complete harvest.

Let us be faithful stewards of the kingdom, watchful and hopeful, until the day when the wheat is gathered and the weeds burned.

Feast day of
St. Mary Magdalene

Beloved St. Mary Magdalene, when everyone cursed you, our Lord blessed you. As soon as He expelled the demons out of you, your flesh had no power over the love you had for Christ. You did not look back but rather up high, contemplating God's face. It is no wonder why you were the first one to see Him resurrected. In moments of temptation, send me tears of repentance like the ones you wiped our Lord's feet with. Please help me when sin is at the door my mind and heart, so that the enemy may not steal my soul.

Amen.

*St. Mary Magdalene,
Pray for us!*

Pope Francis

St. Augustine

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP
Diocese of Brooklyn
310 Prospect Park West
Brooklyn NY, 11215

Dear Pastors,

We have seen the painful images of devastation and continue to hear of the deaths caused by two earthquakes in Venezuela. Our hearts and prayers go out to all those affected by this terrible disaster.

In an effort to give aid and support to our Venezuelan brothers and sisters in need, I ask that every parish in the diocese take up a voluntary second collection as soon as possible on a date of your choosing. Please announce the special collection at all masses this weekend, the monies collected will be sent by our diocese to Catholic relief services (CRS), which is working through Caritas Venezuela, for distribution and direct assistance with shelter, food, and other humanitarian aid to the affected in Venezuela. Please send all collected funds as soon as possible.

Asking the Lord to extend his blessings upon our brothers and sisters in Venezuela during this most difficult time, and thanking the faithful of Brooklyn and Queens, for their continued compassion.

Fraternally yours in Christ, Robert J. Brennan

Bishop of Brooklyn

Mission Appeal Next Weekend

Next weekend, July 25-26, we are pleased to welcome Fr. Peter Ssekajugo, IMC, Superior of the North American Delegation of the Consolata Missionaries, who will speak at all Masses about the missionary work of the Church and the ministry of the Consolata Missionaries.

Fr. Peter currently serves as the Superior of the Consolata Missionaries in the United States, Canada, and Mexico.

The annual Mission Appeal reminds us of our call to support the Church's missionary efforts through our prayers and generosity. Please join us in extending a warm Regina Pacis welcome to Fr. Peter and prayerfully consider supporting this important ministry through the second collection. Thank you for your continued generosity.

Christ is alive!
He is our hope, and in a wonderful way he brings youth to our world,
and everything he touches becomes young, new, full of life.
The very first words, then, that I would like to say to every young Christian are these:
Christ is alive and he wants you to be alive!

(Pope Francis, Christus Vivit, 1)

Take courage!
I have overcome the world.
