The Pastor's Desk

Today, the Gospel suggests that we consider some of Jesus' recommendations to His disciples, both from those times and for all times. Even in the community of the early Christians, there were faults and behaviors contrary to God's will. The final verse provides the framework for resolving problems that arise within the Church throughout history: "For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them" (Mt 18:20). Jesus is present in every period of the life of His Church, His "Mystical Body", invigorated by the unceasing action of the Holy Spirit. We are always brothers and sisters, whether the community is large or small. "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother" (Mt 18:15). How beautiful and loyal is the fraternal relationship about which Jesus teaches us! When faced with an offense against me or someone else, I must ask the Lord for His grace to forgive, to understand, and ultimately, to try to correct my brother or sister. Our deep affection and humility will make us seek gentleness[...]. This is how the Mother of Jesus, and our Mother too, corrects us: with inspirations to love God and our brothers and sisters more deeply. (By Prof. Dr. Mons. Lluís Clavell)

Remembering Marilyn Calabro

Prayer for 25 Years Of Remembrance 2001-2026

God of comfort and peace
we remember the lives lost on September 11, 2001,
and honor the courage
of those who responded
with bravery and love.

Be near to all who
still carry grief and loss.
Bring healing where there is pain,
and hope where there is sorrow.

Teach us to live with compassion,
to stand together in unity,
and to be instruments of peace
in a divided world.

May we never forget,
and may we always choose
love over fear.

In your name,
Amen.

"My dear young people, at the conclusion of the Holy Year, I entrust to you the sign of this Jubilee Year: the Cross of Christ!
Carry it throughout the world as a symbol of Christ's love for humanity, and proclaim to everyone that it is only in Christ, who died and rose from the dead, that salvation and redemption are to be found."

(Saint John Paul II entrusting the Jubilee Cross to the youth)

Take courage!
I have overcome the world.

(Jn 16:33)
