TRINITY SUNDAY: CALLED TO LIVE THE LIFE OF THE TRINITY, NOT THE MYSTERY

The Gospel this Sunday presents the last words of Jesus on earth, before He ascended to the Father. As a caring person, He provides to us His last words with great significance and seriousness. As a mystery provides clues to decipher, this solemnity provides clues though the Gospel of what we can put together that will give us an idea of God, who is loving and involving us in His mission - through the Great Commissioning.

"All power in heaven and earth has been given to me. Go, therefore, and make disciples of nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you..."

This commissioning tells us that we are His people and we are entrusted with a mission. God, our Father, wants us to be loving and co-creative in sowing the love He has begun in our world. He becomes present when we allow Him to accompany us in the life of transformation, or when we help others to become His disciples. We live the life of the Trinity when our lives are filled with loving desire to save, to rescue, to help others from the traps of the world. The Holy Spirit becomes present when we open ourselves to His inspiration and power. It is His presence and power that strengthen us to become His disciples according to His purpose and ways.

I encourage you to open yourselves in the life of the Trinity, who shapes us to become forgiving rather than condemning. Living this life will take our lives and decisions to building up and affirming rather than tearing down. This life will lead us to become self-sacrificial and not self-centered, giving rather than holding or hoarding, and healing rather than wounding

Look at the way you live your life within your home with your family. The life of the Trinity is best affirmed and nurtured within our homes. For it is in a family that we not only belong, but also where we discover, nurture, and affirm our own unique and individual personalities. It is in living the reality of being truly a family that we have a glimpse into the life of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

May God bless you (+) the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

JUNE PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH: FOR THE FAMILY AND THE HOME

Saint Joseph, the virginal father of Jesus Christ, was faithful to his daily work as a carpenter. With his work, Saint Joseph supported his virgin wife, Mary, and the Child Jesus, his Son.

"Go, then to Joseph, and do all that he shall say to you;
Go to Joseph, and obey him as Jesus and Mary obeyed him;
Go to Joseph, and speak to him as they spoke to him;
Go to Joseph, and consult him as they consulted him;
Go to Joseph, and honor him as they honored him;
Go to Joseph, and be grateful to him as they were grateful to him;
Go to Joseph, and love him, as they love him still."

(St. Alphonsus Liguori)

Religious Education Faith Formation

Theresa Konitzer 410-592-6206, Ext. 107

konitzermt@sjehydes.org

Religious Education Faith Formation

Today's Gospel reminds us of the Great Commission to go out into the world and make disciples. However, Jesus assured them that He would be with them always. In today's troubled world, today's readings remind us that it is Jesus who gives us strength to face all obstacles and gives us hope.

Parent Discussion Question: How does Jesus give us the strength to face the tasks that might seem difficult?

Registration for Religious Education Faith Formation Classes

Beginning September 2021, we plan to conduct in-person classes Sunday mornings from 10:15 - 11:20 AM. If you would like to enroll your child(ren) in the 2021 - 2022 Formation Program, please complete and return the Registration Form that can be found on the parish website at www.sjehydes.org.

Catechists Needed

We cannot wait to be back to in-person classes in the fall, but to do so we need catechists. These dedicated people graciously share their faith experiences with the children of this parish. If you like working with children and talking about your faith, you might like being a catechist. For more information, please feel free to contact Theresa Konitzer at 410-592-6206, Ext. 107.

Most Holy Trinity, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, please draw me into a relationship of love with You Who are one God and three divine Persons. May the mystery and beauty of Your life become more known and loved by me each day through the gift of transforming mystical prayer. Jesus, I trust in You.
