THE POPE'S MONTHLY INTENTION

The Beauty of Marriage

Let us pray for young people who are preparing for marriage with the support of a Christian community: may they grow in love, with generosity, faithfulness, and patience.

MESSAGE FROM DEACON JOE

Dear Friends:

The role of God in calming the storms of life both in the Church and in the private lives of Christians is the central theme of the readings for this Sunday.

In the First Reading, God addresses Job for the first time. We hear how the Lord speaks to Job whose life had been devastated by the total loss of his possessions, the deaths of his dear ones, and a disease that left him in misery. God's words "out of the storm" reminds Job that only God is in control.

Today's Responsorial Psalm (Psalm #107) picks up the storm theme and tells us how the Lord saves the sailors caught up in the high waves of a storm. We hear that "They who sailed the sea in ships ... saw the works of the Lord and his wonders in the abyss" by first "raising up a storm wind," then "hushing the storm to a gentle breeze."

St. Paul "rode the storm" of rejection by his former friends. He also experienced storms of violent hostility from the Jews who refused to believe that Jesus was the promised Messiah. He explains in the Second Reading that Jesus died for us to make us a "new creation." In order to receive this gift of love, we have to respond by living for Jesus in all situations of our lives. We do so because Jesus has gone before us through the uncharted sea of life.

In today's Gospel, Mark assures his first-century audience that nothing can harm the Church as long as the risen Lord is with them. He describes how Jesus stilled a storm on the Sea of Galilee, returned the sea to its natural order, and saved the apostles from drowning by his commanding words.

We need to remember that Jesus is always with us in "the boat" of our lives. We all experience different types of violent storms such as physical storms, emotional storms, and spiritual storms. We face storms of sorrow, doubt, anxiety, worry, temptation, and passion. Only Jesus can still these storms and give us real peace. Moreover, Jesus consoles us at the loss of our dear ones with the assurance of eternal life for them in heaven where we, too, will live one day.

When the storms of doubt seek to uproot the very foundations of our faith, Jesus is there to still that storm, revealing to us his divinity and the authority behind the words of the Holy Scripture. If we ask and respond with loving trust and obedience, Jesus will give us peace in our tempests of doubt, peace in our storms of anxiety, peace about the unknown future, and peace about those we love.

God bless you,

Deacon Joe Sifferman

RACHEL'S CORNER

Hope and Healing After Abortion

"Hope has two beautiful daughters; their names are Anger and Courage. Anger at the way things are, and Courage to see that they do not remain as they are." – Saint Augustine

Are you familiar with the anger felt inside since your abortion decision? Courage is there as well and is inviting you to re-discover hope again.

Call for a compassionate, confidential conversation.

June 20: World Refugee Day

Take a moment and remember the 22 million people who have had to flee their homes and countries in search of safety for their families and loved ones.

FROM USCCB

RELIGIOUS
WEEK

Religious Freedom
Week 2021:
Solidarity in
Freedom

"Solidarity means much more than engaging in sporadic acts of generosity. It means thinking and acting in terms of community" (Fratelli tutti, 116).

Religious freedom allows the Church, and all religious communities, to live out their faith in public and to serve the good of all. Beginning June 22, the feast of Sts. Thomas More and John Fisher, the USCCB invites Catholics to pray, reflect, and act to promote religious freedom.
