THE POPE'S MONTHLY INTENTION

People Who Suffer from Depression

We pray that people who suffer from depression or burn-out will find support and a light that opens them up to life.

MESSAGE FROM DEACON JOE

Dear Friends:

Today's readings invite us to surrender our lives to God with a humble and generous heart by serving others lovingly and sacrificially. The First Reading and the Gospel today present poor widows who sacrificially gave their whole lives and means of livelihood to God, foreshadowing the supreme sacrifice Jesus would offer by giving his life for others.

The First Reading is taken from the First Book of Kings. It's the story of a poor widow who has barely enough food for herself and her son. And yet she welcomes the prophet Elijah as a man of God, offers all her food to him, and receives her reward from God in the form of a continuing daily supply of food.

Today's Responsorial Psalm (Psalm #146) reminds us that everything that exists belongs to the Lord. The Psalmist further reminds us that when we return thanks to him, as the widows did, we please him.

That prepares us for the Second Reading. It tells us how Jesus, as the High Priest of the New Testament, surrendered his life to God his Father, totally and unconditionally, as a sacrificial offering for our sins. Of course his sacrifice is far beyond the sacrifices made by the poor widows or by any of us for that matter.

In the Gospel, Jesus contrasts the external signs of honor sought by the scribes with the humble, sacrificial offering of a poor widow. He declares that she has found true honor in God's eyes.

The poor widows in both the First Reading and the Gospel give away all that they possess for the glory of God. The sacrificial self-giving of the widows in the First Reading and the Gospel reflects God's love in giving his only Son for us, and Christ's love in sacrificing himself on the cross.

Even in a prosperous society like ours, widows and widowers often suffer from economic loss. In addition to their deep grief, they may also suffer from the burden of rearing a family alone and from a strange isolation from friends.

Let's learn to appreciate the widows and widowers of our parish community. Their loneliness draws them closer to God and frequently leads to stewardship in the parish. They are often active participants in all the liturgical celebrations, offering prayers for their families and for their parish family. Often, they are active in the parish organizations such as visiting and serving the sick and the shut-ins. So let's appreciate them, support them, encourage them, and pray for them.

God bless you,

Deacon Joe Sifferman

November Remembrance Table

Our remembrance tables are once again in the back of the church. Please bring a photo of your departed loved one to display during the month. Please be sure and put your name on the back of the frame so we can make sure they are returned. Photos can be picked up from the tables at the end of the month.

ST. VINCENT de PAUL

During October your Christ the King Conference responded to 52 requests for help from our neighbors and were able to give assistance to 81 adults & children. Your generosity allowed us to keep many of our neighbors in their homes or apartments by paying rent or utilities. We also distributed vouchers for food, clothes, bus tickets and other necessary items. We also provided food bags each week & gave out a large number of items from the goods for you program.

We need your support more than ever during this time of the year as we respond to many requests from families asking for Thanksgiving & Christmas help. This year as in past years, we plan to give special help to as many families as possible to help make their holidays the best they can be.

Remember to bring your food donations to church on Thanksgiving or that weekend as we have a continuing need for pasta, pasta sauce & shaker cheese for our food bags,

Donations can be put in the basket in the rear of the church marked for St Vincent de Paul or sent to Christ the King Church/St. Vincent de Paul at:

405 North 117th St. Seattle, WA. 98133

or use the online giving process to give to St. Vincent de Paul

STEWARDSHIP

This week, we begin our annual renewal of Stewardship of Treasure, highlighting once again stewardship as a way of life. By now, you should have received an important mailing from Fr. Chris. Please take a few minutes from your busy day, read his letter, and review the attached commitment card. In prayer, reflect upon how God has blessed you and your family and for what you are grateful.

Then in a spirit of generosity, consider how you will respond and return your 2022 treasure commitment card to Christ the King before Thanksgiving in the envelope provided.

This weekend, November 6-7, Fr. Chris' homily will focus on stewardship as a way of life. He will invite every household to make a financial commitment according to your means to the ministries of our parish in 2022.

There are many unique and important ways that the Christ the King community lives out our Catholic faith seven days a week within and beyond parish boundaries. Together, we offer and participate in programs and services through the sharing of our time, talent, and treasure. Without generous gifts of all three by parish members, the ongoing work of our parish and school would not be possible.
