Letter from our Pastor—Carta de nuestro párroco

Dear Friends,

The letter to the Hebrews reminds us that “Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus.”

How often do we think of that “great cloud of witnesses?” Who are those witnesses that inspire us to live the faith we have been given? Many take inspiration from the Saints, like Peter and Paul, or Francis of Assisi, Teresa of Avila or Ignatius Loyola. Maybe you find inspiration in Elizabeth Ann Seton, or Terese of Lisieux (the little Flower), Maximillian Kolbe or Mother Teresa of Calcutta. Most of us have our favorites, the Saint whose life and concerns speaks to our own and can both challenge and guide us.

But we are not meant to stop with canonized saints; we can look at our own lives, our families, our neighbors, our parishes as well. We are meant to find there witnesses of faith who inspire us and teach us how to live the Gospel today.

Look around you, and let that cloud of witnesses spur you on to follow Jesus!

Peace and blessings,

Father Tom

Queridos amigos,

La carta a los Hebreos nos recuerda que “Rodeados, como estamos, por la multitud de antepasados nuestros, que dieron prueba de su fe, dejemos todo lo que nos estorba; librémonos del pecado que nos ata, para correr con perseverancia la carrera que tenemos por delante, fija la mirada en Jesús.”

¿Con qué frecuencia pensamos en esa “multitud de antepasados” de testigos de la fe”? ¿Quiénes son esos testigos que nos inspiran a vivir la fe que nos ha sido dada? Muchas personas encuentran inspiración en los Santos, como San Pedro y San Pablo, o San Francisco de Asís, Santa Teresa de Ávila o San Ignacio de Loyola. Quizás encuentren inspiración en Santa Elizabeth Ann Seton, o Santa Teresita del Niño Jesús (la florecita), San Maximiliano Kolbe o la Madre Teresa de Calcuta. La mayoría de nosotros tenemos nuestros Santos favoritos, aquel Santo cuya vida e inquietudes hablan de las nuestras, resuenan en nuestros corazones y pueden desafiarnos y guiarnos.

Pero no estamos llamados a limitarnos solamente a los santos canonizados; podemos encontrar inspiración en nuestras propias vidas, nuestras familias, nuestros vecinos, y en nuestras parroquias también. Estamos destinados a encontrar allí testigos de fe que nos inspiren, nos ayuden y nos enseñen a vivir el Evangelio en nuestra vida diaria.

¡Miren a su alrededor y dejen que esa nube de testigos les impulse a seguir a Jesús!

Paz y bendiciones,

Padre Tom

Praising God

The Virgin Mary, with her Magnificat, teaches us how to praise and glorify God. It is an invitation through which the Virgin Mary, contemplated in glory, invites us to go beyond our usual mode of magnifying problems and difficulties. Mary is able, and she teaches this to us, to look on life through another lens: our hearts are greater than our sins. This is not, therefore, illusory, as if to say there are no problems in life. It is about appreciating what is beautiful and good in life and knowing how to thank God for it! This way, even problems are seen in their proper light. Let's pray on this, her Feast:

Father in heaven, all creation rightly gives you praise, for all life and all holiness come from you. In the plan of your wisdom, she who bore the Christ in her womb, was raised body and soul in glory to be with him in heaven. May we follow her example in reflecting your holiness, and join in her hymn of endless love and praise. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Asunción de la Santísima Virgen María al Cielo

Lunes 15 de agosto

Misa en español en Nuestra Señora del Ángelus a las 7:30 pm

Alabando a Dios

La Virgen María, con su Magnificat, nos enseña cómo alabar y glorificar a Dios. Es una invitación a través de la cual la Virgen María, contemplada en la gloria, nos invita a ir más allá de nuestro modo habitual de magnificar los problemas y las dificultades. María es capaz, y nos enseña, a mirar la vida con otro lente: nuestro corazón es más grande que nuestros pecados. Esto no es, por tanto, una ilusión, como si dijera que no hay problemas en la vida. ¡Se trata de apreciar lo que es hermoso y bueno en la vida y saber agradecer a Dios por ello! De esta manera, incluso los problemas se ven en su justa medida. Oremos en esta, su festividad de la Asunción:

Padre que estás en los cielos, con razón toda la creación te alaba, porque de ti procede toda vida y toda santidad. En el designio de tu sabiduría, aquella que llevó a Cristo en su seno, se elevó en cuerpo y alma a la gloria para estar con El en el cielo. Que podamos seguir su ejemplo al reflejar tu santidad y unirnos a su himno de amor y alabanza sin fin. Te lo pedimos por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén.

Your continuous support will be greatly appreciated

Many of our parish families get away for some summer fun and relaxation.

We pray that your vacation time is safe and a source of many happy memories.

However, please don't take your parish offering on vacation with you.

Please drop off your envelopes
at the rectory or use on-line giving.

It keeps God at the top of your giving list even when you are away!
Enjoy your vacation!

Les agradecemos muchísimo su apoyo continuo

Muchas de las familias de nuestra parroquia se van de paseo para divertirse y relajarse durante el verano. Pedimos a Dios para que su tiempo de vacaciones sea placentero y una fuente de bonitos recuerdos.

Sin embargo, les pedimos que por favor no se lleven su ofrenda parroquial de vacaciones. Dejen sus sobres en la rectoría o usen la donación en línea. ¡Debemos mantener a Dios como primera prioridad incluso cuando se van de paseo! ¡Que disfruten sus vacaciones!

SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

August 14, 2022

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Prophets have been described as being on fire with God's message. Today, that fire in Jeremiah has to keep burning in the bottom of a muddy cistern. The rulers of his own people (including Judah's king, Zedekiah) have placed him there for speaking an unpopular, if truthful, message to them. His own leave him there, mired in the mud, to starve and die. It takes a foreigner, an outsider, to convince Judah's king that Jeremiah ought to be rescued, his life spared to continue as God's prophet. As so often happens in the lives of the prophets, the help and saving power of God are shown through unexpected people in unexpected ways. We can often find ourselves mired in mud of one sort or another. Do we truly have the fire of God's message in us, so that we can look for our rescue from places we might not expect?

SPIRIT FIRE IN THE SUMMER

A generation or two ago, these Summer Sundays in Ordinary Time would have been known as Sundays "of Pentecost." That naming convention helped recall that the Spirit's Pentecost fire was carrying us through all the Sundays until the end of the liturgical year. Though we may no longer use that name for these Sundays, the underlying reality is the same. The fire that Jesus speaks about today is the blaze of the Spirit. The fire he spoke about when he told his followers they were light for the world was the flame of the Spirit lighting the lamp of discipleship. It takes courageous disciples to allow the blazing fire of which Jesus speaks into their lives, to allow its light, warmth, and even cleansing to work in them and through them. Though we may not want to think about the heat of the Spirit's fire on a summer Sunday, that Spirit is always with us, burning within.

Today's Readings: Jer 38:4-6, 8-10; Ps 40:2, 3, 4, 18; Heb 12:1-4; Lk 12:49-53

Vigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Se ha descrito a los profetas como si estuvieran ardiendo con el mensaje de Dios. Hoy, ese fuego en Jeremías tiene que seguir ardiendo en el fondo de una cisterna de barro. Los gobernantes de su propio pueblo (incluido el rey de Judá, Sedecías) lo han colocado allí por decirles un mensaje impopular, aunque veraz. Los suyos lo dejan allí, hundido en el barro, para que se muera de hambre. Hace falta un extranjero, un forastero, para convencer al rey de Judá de que hay que rescatar a Jeremías y perdonarle la vida para que siga siendo el profeta de Dios. Como ocurre a menudo en la vida de los profetas, la ayuda y el poder salvador de Dios se manifiestan a través de personas inesperadas y de formas inesperadas. A menudo podemos encontrarnos empantanados en el barro de un tipo u otro. ¿Tenemos realmente el fuego del mensaje de Dios en nosotros, para poder buscar nuestro rescate en lugares que no esperamos?

EL FUEGO DEL ESPÍRITU EN EL VERANO

Hace una o dos generaciones, estos domingos de verano del tiempo ordinario se habrían conocido como domingos "de Pentecostés". Esa convención de nomenclatura ayudaba a recordar que el fuego de Pentecostés del Espíritu nos llevaba a través de todos los domingos hasta el final del año litúrgico. Aunque ya no utilicemos ese nombre para estos domingos, la realidad subyacente es la misma. El fuego del que habla hoy Jesús es el fuego del Espíritu. El fuego del que habló cuando dijo a sus seguidores que eran luz para el mundo era la llama del Espíritu encendiendo la lámpara del discipulado. Se necesitan discípulos valientes para permitir que el fuego ardiente del que habla Jesús entre en sus vidas, para permitir que su luz, su calor e incluso su limpieza actúen en ellos y a través de ellos. Aunque no queramos pensar en el calor del fuego del Espíritu en un domingo de verano, ese Espíritu está siempre con nosotros, ardiendo en nuestro interior.

Just like the Apostles, we must rely on our God given gifts and talents to fulfill the mission entrusted to us. This is our time to respond in faith, hope and charity to Jesus, who calls us, each in his or her own way, to be a light for all people. It is our time to remember the real and everlasting presence of Jesus Christ in our midst and how our Catholic values bring truth and strength not only to our own lives but to those around us. We ask you to respond through your prayerful consideration and reflection, and make a gift to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal.
