Letter from our Pastor—Carta de nuestro párroco

Dear Friends,

What are we doing with our lives? Where are we on the road to salvation? These are the kinds of questions which today's Gospel might prompt us to ask ourselves. We have many pressing needs in our lives which vie for our attention. These could be concerns about finance, health, security, family, friends, political issues and a variety of other areas. We cannot ignore pressing needs that impact ourselves or others. But today's Gospel would have us look at everything in light of our eternal salvation.

We are not to take eternal life for granted, as if what we do in this world has no impact on our salvation. Jesus calls us to live holy lives, to follow the narrow way. To be sure, God is merciful; God's love for us abounds--God's love is everlasting. We are offered countless opportunities to respond to God's love in our lives—as we make time for prayer, as we seek Christ's forgiveness in the sacrament of Reconciliation, as we celebrate God's presence in the Eucharist, as we serve one another aware of God's presence in our neighbor, both near and far.

These are all ways in which we have the opportunity to respond to God's saving love—following the narrow way, as we move from selfishness to self-giving, following the pattern of Jesus.

Peace and blessings,

Father Tom

Queridos amigos,

¿Qué estamos haciendo con nuestras vidas? ¿Estamos avanzando en el camino a la salvación? Este es el tipo de preguntas que el Evangelio de hoy podría invitarnos a cuestionar. Tenemos muchas necesidades apremiantes en nuestras vidas diarias, que pueden absorber nuestra atención. Estas pueden ser preocupaciones sobre finanzas, salud, familia, amigos, asuntos políticos y una variedad de otras áreas. No podemos ignorar las necesidades apremiantes que nos afectan a nosotros mismos o a los demás. Pero el Evangelio de hoy quiere que miremos todo a la luz de nuestra salvación eterna.

No debemos dar por sentada la vida eterna, como si lo que hacemos en este mundo no tuviera impacto en nuestra salvación. Jesús nos llama a vivir vidas santas, a seguir el camino angosto. Sin duda, Dios es misericordioso; El amor de Dios por nosotros abunda, el amor de Dios es eterno. Se nos ofrecen innumerables oportunidades para responder al amor de Dios en nuestras vidas, por ejemplo, al dedicar tiempo a la oración, al buscar el perdón de Dios en el sacramento de la Reconciliación, al celebrar la presencia de Dios en la Sagrada Eucaristía, al servirnos los unos a los otros, conscientes de la presencia de Dios. en nuestro prójimo.

Todas estas son formas en las que tenemos la oportunidad de responder al amor salvador de Dios, siguiendo el camino angosto, a medida que pasamos del egoísmo a la entrega, siguiendo el modelo y el ejemplo de Jesús.

Paz y bendiciones,

Padre Tom

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 21, 2022

COVENANT RELATIONSHIP

The term “fair-weather friend” might need a technological-era updating. Perhaps “short attention span friend” would work. In our world of multiple communication platforms, it somehow has become increasingly easy to lose track of friends. We shouldn’t be surprised when we reach out and they’ve moved on due to our indifference. The God who is love and whose covenant is one-hundred percent about relationship is depicted in the same way by Jesus today. Hey God, remember us? There was that one time we were really in trouble and you helped out; well, we’re in trouble again. But we may find that God has moved on since we turned out to be only foul-weather friends. The covenant relationship has two parties: God and us. If that covenant relationship falls apart, and we’re no longer “friended” by God, it’s not because God failed as a friend. Keeping up the friendship and relationship with God is equally our responsibility.

FROM EAST TO WEST

With our modern understanding of the world and its various cultures and religions, it’s hard to grasp how shocking Isaiah’s words today would have been to those who first encountered them. After all, they were the people God called “Chosen.” It was easy for them to presume that after the sufferings of exile that God’s freeing redemption would be for them and them alone. Yet here is Isaiah saying that the saving hand of God will extend to all nations, even those of varying ways and languages. Perhaps most shocking to Isaiah’s initial audience would have been today’s final line: that God would take these outsiders and fugitives, elevating them to the priesthood, to include them in the descendants of one of Jacob’s sons, Levi. It’s not difficult to imagine that this sweeping vision of God’s mercy and love beyond the bounds of the Chosen People was met with resistance, much as similar messages are met with resistance today.

FROM NORTH AND SOUTH

Jesus shows himself to be firmly in Israel’s prophetic tradition, a true son of Isaiah today, as he proclaims a similar message. Those who had been chosen as disciples could not presume that merely keeping physical proximity with Jesus or remaining in his company gave them any real claim to call themselves true disciples. As important as table fellowship is in Luke’s Gospel, even eating and drinking with Jesus does not guarantee an eventual seat at the table of God’s reign. Even being a “pureblood” (a descendant of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob) doesn’t make your final destination a sure thing. How the world has placed you into its categories—first or last—just might get scrambled too. It is those who follow Jesus through the “narrow gate” of discipleship, truly abiding by his example who are sure to find themselves reclining at table in the kingdom.

TODAY’S READINGS

Isaiah 66:18–21
Psalm 117:1, 2
Hebrews 12:5–7, 11–13
Luke 13:22–30

Strive to enter through the narrow gate,
for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter
but will not be strong enough.

Luke 13:24

VIGÉSIMO PRIMER DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

21 DE AGOSTO DE 2022

Esfuércense por entrar por la puerta, que es angosta, pues yo les aseguro que
muchos tratarán de entrar y no podrán.

Lucas 13:24

LA RELACIÓN DE ALIANZA

El término “amigo del tiempo justo” podría necesitar una actualización de la era tecnológica. Tal vez funcione “amigo con poca capacidad de atención”. En nuestro mundo de múltiples plataformas de comunicación, cada vez es más fácil perder de vista a los amigos. No deberíamos sorprendernos cuando nos acercamos y ellos se han ido por nuestra indiferencia. El Dios que es amor y cuya alianza se basa al cien por cien en la relación es representado de la misma manera por Jesús hoy. Oye, Dios, ¿te acuerdas de nosotros? Hubo una vez en que estábamos realmente en problemas y nos ayudaste; pues bien, estamos en problemas otra vez. Pero puede que nos encontremos con que Dios ha seguido adelante desde que resultamos ser sólo amigos de mal agüero. La relación de alianza tiene dos partes: Dios y nosotros. Si esa relación de alianza se rompe, y ya no somos “amigos” de Dios, no es porque Dios haya fallado como amigo. Mantener la amistad y la relación con Dios es igualmente nuestra responsabilidad.

DE ORIENTE A OCCIDENTE

Con nuestra comprensión moderna del mundo y de sus diversas culturas y religiones, es difícil comprender lo impactantes que habrían sido las palabras de Isaías hoy en día para aquellos que las encontraron por primera vez. Después de todo, eran el pueblo al que Dios llamaba “Elegido”. Era fácil para ellos suponer que, tras los sufrimientos del exilio, la redención liberadora de Dios sería para ellos y sólo para ellos. Sin embargo, aquí está Isaías diciendo que la mano salvadora de Dios se extenderá a todas las naciones, incluso a las que tienen diferentes formas y lenguas. Quizá lo más chocante para la audiencia inicial de Isaías hubiera sido la línea final de hoy: que Dios tomaría a estos forasteros y fugitivos, elevándolos al sacerdocio, para incluirlos en la descendencia de uno de los hijos de Jacob, Leví. No es difícil imaginar que esta amplia visión de la misericordia y el amor de Dios más allá de los límites del Pueblo Elegido fue recibida con resistencia, al igual que mensajes similares son recibidos con resistencia hoy en día.

DEL NORTE Y DEL SUR

Jesús se muestra firmemente en la tradición profética de Israel, un verdadero hijo de Isaías hoy, al proclamar un mensaje similar. Los que habían sido elegidos como discípulos no podían presumir que el mero hecho de mantener la proximidad física con Jesús o de permanecer en su compañía les daba derecho a llamarse verdaderos discípulos. Por muy importante que sea la comunión en la mesa en el Evangelio de Lucas, ni siquiera el hecho de comer y beber con Jesús garantiza un eventual asiento en la mesa del reino de Dios. Ni siquiera ser un “pura sangre” (un descendiente de Abraham, Isaac y Jacob) hace que tu destino final sea seguro. La forma en que el mundo te ha colocado en sus categorías -primero o último- también puede ser revuelta. Los que siguen a Jesús por la “puerta estrecha” del discipulado, siguiendo verdaderamente su ejemplo, son los que se sentarán a la mesa en el Reino.

Just like the Apostles, we must rely on our God given gifts and talents to fulfill the mission entrusted to us. This is our time to respond in faith, hope and charity to Jesus, who calls us, each in his or her own way, to be a light for all people. It is our time to remember the real and everlasting presence of Jesus Christ in our midst and how our Catholic values bring truth and strength not only to our own lives but to those around us. We ask you to respond through your prayerful consideration and reflection, and make a gift to the 2022 Annual Catholic Appeal.
