Letter from our Pastor—Carta de nuestro párroco

Dear Friends,

Last weekend we heard the challenging words of the beatitudes which were meant to get us thinking differently about the world, calling us to see Christ in ourselves and those around us. This weekend's Gospel challenges us to think differently about ourselves and God's call for us.

When Jesus says to his disciples (and us) "You are the salt of the earth...You are the light of the world," he is telling us how much he believes in us and is counting on us! We know how some dishes are so bland and tasteless without at least some salt. Well, as salt will add taste and flavor to any dish, we are that essential ingredient that makes a difference in the world today, if we live out the call to love our neighbor and serve the needy. And as light illuminates the darkness, helping people to find the way, Christ counts on us to let the light of our Christian faith help others to find the way to Christ.

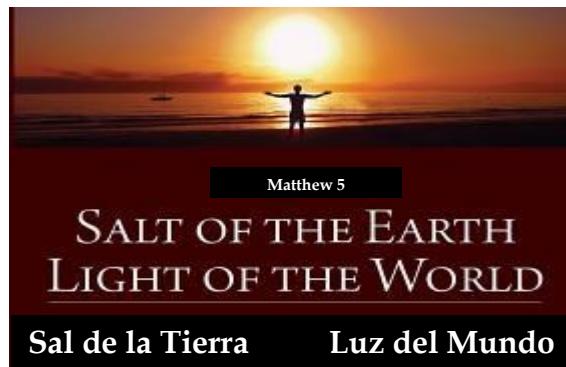

So Jesus sees in each one of us great potential—to be his witnesses. How we live, what we say and do, makes a difference in the life of the world. God has placed such goodness in us, such a love for others, that if we use the time and the gifts we have been given, God's name will be praised! We bring a light to be shared, aware that all that we have comes from God.

Peace and blessings,

Fr. Tom

Queridos amigos,

El fin de semana pasado escuchamos en el Evangelio las palabras desafiantes de Jesús en las bienaventuranzas. Sus palabras tienen como objetivo hacernos pensar de manera diferente sobre el mundo, llevándonos a ver a Cristo en nosotros mismos y en quienes nos rodean. El Evangelio de este fin de semana nos desafía de nuevo, a pensar de manera diferente sobre nosotros mismos y sobre el llamado de Dios para nosotros.

Cuando Jesús les dice a sus discípulos (y nos lo dice a nosotros también) "Ustedes son la sal de la tierra... ustedes son la luz del mundo", ¡nos está diciendo que Él cree en nosotros, en nuestras capacidades y que Él cuenta con nosotros! Sabemos que la comida sin sal es insípida y desabrida, pero, al ponerle un poquito de sal, le damos gusto y sabor a cualquier platillo. Nosotros somos ese ingrediente esencial que hace la diferencia en este mundo, si vivimos el llamado a amar a nuestro prójimo y a servir a los necesitados. Y así como la luz ilumina las tinieblas, ayudando a las personas a encontrar su camino, Cristo Jesús cuenta con nosotros para que seamos esa luz para los demás, para que la luz de nuestra fe cristiana ayude a otros a encontrar el camino hacia Cristo.

Por lo tanto, debemos comprender que Jesús ve en cada uno de nosotros un gran potencial para dar testimonio de su amor. La forma en que vivimos y como actuamos, lo que decimos y hacemos, puede hacer una gran diferencia en la vida de los demás. Dios ha puesto tal bondad en nosotros, tal amor por los demás, que si nos tomamos el tiempo necesario y utilizamos los dones que Dios nos ha dado al servicio de nuestros hermanos y hermanas, ¡el nombre de Dios será alabado y exaltado! Traigamos entonces, una luz para ser compartida, conscientes de que todo lo que tenemos viene de Dios.

Paz y bendiciones,

Padre Tom

Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Following last week's passage from Matthew with the Beatitudes, today we continue Jesus' Sermon on the Mount with his images of salt, light, and a city. Jesus moves from describing the core identity of the community he has gathered to considering its impact on the world. He wanted his community not just to claim its identity, but to live it out. He wanted his community to journey with him, to fully learn what this might mean.

For us, being salt for others may mean engaging and enriching the lives of our neighbors. Being light may mean illuminating and addressing the world's systems that sustain social sins of violence, racism, and vast inequalities of wealth and opportunity. Being a city set high may mean holding to high standards of transparency, respect, and care for each other. Like Jesus' first followers, we are invited to travel the difficult and joy-filled road of learning and re-learning how to be the Church.

CROSS-SHAPED MINISTRY

Saint Paul, in today's passage from First Corinthians, admits he is not a salesman. He did not come to Corinth with a sales pitch, with skilled rhetoric and worldly wisdom. Paul says that he simply came to speak of Christ crucified. For Paul, the cross is God's primary self-revelation, and the whole life of following Christ is marked by it. Paul describes this cross-shaped ministry by how he first preached it: with humility and fear. He was a messenger who looked weak by the standards of society, in order that the Spirit might break through to his listeners.

We may know or have read of those who spoke or lived with a cross-shaped presence. Perhaps a missionary who humbly served a community while preaching Christ. Or a group of protesters against injustice, who faced violent resistance with dignity and persistence. They open a space for the Spirit to transform hearts. Paul suggests that making ourselves vulnerable makes love possible.

Today's Readings: Is 58:7-10; Ps 112:4-5, 6-7, 8-9; 1 Cor 2:1-5;
Mt 5:13-16

FIFTH Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 5, 2023

5 de febrero de 2023 Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Tras el pasaje de Mateo de la semana pasada con las Bienaventuranzas, hoy continuamos el Sermón de la Montaña de Jesús con sus imágenes de la sal, la luz y una ciudad. Jesús pasa de describir la identidad básica de la comunidad que ha reunido a considerar su impacto en el mundo. Quería que su comunidad no sólo reivindicara su identidad, sino que la viviera. Quería que su comunidad caminara con él, que aprendiera plenamente lo que esto podía significar.

Para nosotros, ser sal para los demás puede significar comprometernos y enriquecer la vida de nuestros vecinos. Ser luz puede significar iluminar y abordar los sistemas del mundo que sostienen los pecados sociales de la violencia, el racismo y las grandes desigualdades de riqueza y oportunidades. Ser una ciudad elevada puede significar mantener un alto nivel de transparencia, respeto y cuidado mutuo. Como los primeros seguidores de Jesús, se nos invita a recorrer el difícil y gozoso camino de aprender y reaprender a ser Iglesia.

MINISTERIO EN FORMA DE CRUZ

San Pablo, en el pasaje de hoy de la primera epístola a los Corintios, admite que no es un vendedor. No vino a Corinto con un discurso de venta, con una retórica hábil y una sabiduría mundana. Pablo dice que simplemente vino a hablar de Cristo crucificado. Para Pablo, la cruz es la principal revelación de Dios, y toda la vida de seguimiento de Cristo está marcada por ella. Pablo describe este ministerio en forma de cruz por cómo lo predicó al principio: con humildad y temor. Era un mensajero que parecía débil según las normas de la sociedad, para que el Espíritu pudiera llegar a sus oyentes.

Puede que conozcamos o hayamos leído sobre quienes hablaron o vivieron con una presencia en forma de cruz. Tal vez un misionero que sirvió humildemente a una comunidad mientras predicaba a Cristo. O un grupo de manifestantes contra la injusticia, que se enfrentaron a la resistencia violenta con dignidad y persistencia. Abren un espacio para que el Espíritu transforme los corazones. Pablo sugiere que hacernos vulnerables hace posible el amor.
