“The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold.” - Mt 13:23

Letter from our Pastor—Carta de nuestro párroco

Dear Friends,

Van Gogh once wrote that, “Life is like sowing time; the harvest is not yet come.” That message may be harder for us to hear in an industrialized society—in a fast-paced world. We look for quick results. When we don’t get them, we can become frustrated and disappointed. We may often need a boost of divine hope, as well as patience and wisdom.

The Gospel parable of the sower offers us a message of hope, from the Lord’s point of view. God has given us his Word—through the law and the prophets, and through Jesus—and the question is how will we respond? How will God’s Word take root in us and what effect will it have upon us? We can often become impatient with ourselves or with others when we do not immediately see the effects, the results of God’s Word.

But ultimately the sower (God) has hope that the Word will prove effective and valuable. The Word, if we have the wisdom to absorb it, will change us for the better as we respond to the Gospel and open up our heart to it! There is no doubt about that—God’s Word will transform us and bear fruit!

May God give us greater confidence in the effectiveness of his Word; and may we be granted the courage, humility and patience to be true servants and witnesses of the Word in today’s world!

Peace and blessings,

Fr. Tom

Queridos amigos,

Van Gogh, el famoso pintor, escribió una vez que “la vida es como la temporada de la siembra; aún estamos esperando por la cosecha.” Ese mensaje puede ser más difícil de comprender para nosotros en una sociedad industrializada, en un mundo acelerado. Buscamos resultados rápidos. Cuando no los conseguimos, podemos sentirnos frustrados y decepcionados. Es posible que a menudo necesitemos una buena dosis de esperanza divina, además de paciencia y sabiduría.

La Parábola del Sembrador nos ofrece un mensaje de esperanza desde la perspectiva del Señor. Dios nos ha dado su Palabra, a través de la ley y los profetas, y a través de Jesús, y la pregunta es ¿cómo responderemos? ¿Cómo se arraigará la Palabra de Dios en nosotros y qué efecto tendrá en nosotros? A menudo podemos impacientarnos con nosotros mismos y con los demás cuando no vemos inmediatamente los efectos, los resultados de la Palabra de Dios.

Pero ultimadamente el sembrador, que es Dios, tiene la esperanza de que su Palabra resulte efectiva y haga efecto en nosotros. ¡Su Palabra nos cambiará para mejor a medida que respondamos al Evangelio y abramos nuestro corazón a ella! No hay duda de eso: ¡la Palabra de Dios nos transformará y dará fruto!

Pidamos para que Dios nos dé mayor confianza en la eficacia de su Palabra; ¡y que nos conceda el valor, la humildad y la paciencia para ser verdaderos servidores y testigos de su Palabra en el mundo de hoy!

Paz y bendiciones,

Padre Tom

RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) or RCIC (for children 8—17 years old)

Both programs are a process for those who have not been baptized and are interested in learning more about the Catholic Faith. These programs apply, as well, to those who have been baptized in another Christian denomination and seek reception into the Catholic Church, and to those who are baptized Catholic but have not received the Sacraments of Confirmation or Holy Communion.

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults

The RCIA is a spiritual journey of conversion where individuals get to know Jesus and develop a personal relationship with him. This process gives them the opportunity to get acquainted with the rich traditions and beliefs of our Catholic Church and to experience the importance of a parish community and its commitment to the faithful. Call us. Come, learn, experience believe!

RICA (Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos) o RCIC (para niños de 8 a 17 años)

Ambos programas son un proceso para aquellos que no han sido bautizados y están interesados en aprender más sobre la Fe Católica. Estos programas también son para aquellos que han sido bautizados en otra denominación cristiana y buscan ser recibidos en la Iglesia Católica, y también para aquellos que son católicos bautizados pero no han recibido los Sacramentos de la Confirmación o la Primera Comunión. El RICA es una jornada espiritual de conversión donde las personas llegan a conocer mejor a Jesús y desarrollan una relación personal con El. Este proceso les da la oportunidad de familiarizarse con las ricas tradiciones y creencias de nuestra Iglesia Católica y experimentar la importancia de una comunidad parroquial y su compromiso con los fieles.

Llámenos. ¡Venga, aprenda, experimente, crea!

Your continuous support will be greatly appreciated

Many of our parish families get away for some summer fun and relaxation. We pray that your vacation time is safe and a source of many happy memories.

However, please don't take your parish offering on vacation with you. Please drop off your envelopes at the rectory or use on-line giving at www.givecentral.org/location/649 It keeps God at the top of your giving list even when you are away! Enjoy your vacation!

Les agradecemos inmensamente su apoyo continuo

Muchas de las familias de nuestra parroquia se van de paseo para divertirse y relajarse durante el verano. Pedimos a Dios para que su tiempo de vacaciones sea placentero y una fuente de bonitos recuerdos. Sin embargo, les pedimos que por favor no se lleven su ofrenda parroquial de vacaciones. Dejen sus sobres en la rectoría o usen la donación en línea en www.givecentral.org/location/649 ¡Debemos mantener a Dios como primera prioridad incluso cuando se van de paseo! ¡Que disfruten sus vacaciones!

Words, Words, and THE WORD

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Our lives seem to be plagued by an abundance of words, all seeking to influence us. Television ads try to convince us to buy; teachers seek to pass on knowledge; parents cajole, discipline, and beg; society warns against drinking and driving, smoking and drugs; preachers hope to convert and change. They all do so with limited and varying success, and at times seeming failure. Too often there is the presumption that more words will achieve greater results.

In the face of such questionable success, the prophet Isaiah proclaims that God's word "shall not return to me empty, / but shall do what pleases me, /achieving the end for which I sent it" (Isaiah 55:11). Yet the Gospel also suggests that the seed of God's word sown in our lives may wither and be choked off and fail to take root, though also promising that what does produce fruit will surpass anything hoped for.

Because war is news and the media is obliged to report on it, it may appear that war is prominent worldwide. Not so. Statistically there is less war today than ever before, less violence, less conflict. We are more likely to die in our beds than at any other time in history. While there is yet much hunger in the world, there is less than at any other time. Nations are more inclined to try to negotiate peace. Great generosity abounds amid natural disasters, and while injustice prevails, we still fight to overcome

it. All of it the fruitfulness of God's word.

Creation is groaning in labor pains, says St. Paul, and we also groan. Yet the groaning attests to the pains of growing fruitfulness. ●

The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word
and understands it,
who indeed bears fruit.

MATTHEW 13:23

Palabras, palabras y LA PALABRA

P. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Nuestras vidas parecen estar plagadas de una abundancia de palabras, todas ellas tratando de influir en nosotros. Los anuncios de televisión tratan de convencernos para que compremos; los profesores intentan transmitir conocimientos; los padres engatusan, disciplinan y ruegan; la sociedad advierte contra el alcohol y la conducción, el tabaco y las drogas; los predicadores esperan convertir y cambiar. Todos lo hacen con un éxito limitado y variable y, a veces, aparentemente fracasado. Con demasiada frecuencia se presume que con más palabras se conseguirán mejores resultados.

Ante un éxito tan cuestionable, el profeta Isaías proclama que la palabra de Dios “no volverá a mí vacía, / sino que hará lo que me agrada, / alcanzando el fin para el que la envié” (Isaías 55:11). Sin embargo, el Evangelio también sugiere que la semilla de la palabra de Dios sembrada en nuestras vidas puede marchitarse y ser ahogada y no echar raíces, aunque también promete que lo que produce fruto superará todo lo esperado.

Para reflexionar

¿Qué pasaje de la Escritura elegirías como lema para tu vida?

Como la guerra es noticia y los medios de comunicación están obligados a informar sobre ella, puede parecer que la guerra ocupa un lugar destacado en todo el mundo. Pero no es así. Estadísticamente, hoy hay menos guerra que nunca, menos violencia, menos conflictos. Tenemos más probabilidades de morir en nuestras camas que en cualquier otro momento de la historia. Aunque todavía hay mucha hambre en el mundo, hay menos que en cualquier otro momento. Las naciones son más proclives a intentar negociar la paz. Abunda la gran generosidad en medio de las catástrofes naturales, y aunque prevalece la injusticia, seguimos luchando por superarla. Todo ello es fruto de la palabra de Dios.

La creación gime con dolores de parto, dice San Pablo, y nosotros también gemimos. Sin embargo, el gemido atestigua los dolores de la creciente fecundidad. ●

La semilla sembrada en tierra fértil es que oye la palabra y la entiende que sí da fruto.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

It is difficult to distinguish, among the many voices and many words, that of the Lord, the only one that makes us free. Always keep a handy copy of the Gospel with you...and then, read a short passage every day, so that you become used to reading the word of God.
