A photograph showing a person from behind, wearing a dark suit jacket, holding a lit lantern. The lantern is glowing brightly, casting light on the person's hand and the surrounding dark environment. In the background, there is a beautiful sunset or sunrise over hills or mountains, with warm orange and yellow colors in the sky.

Therefore, stay awake,

Letter from our Pastor—Carta de nuestro párroco

Dear Friends,

It's pretty obvious. If you are in charge of a meal or a party, you do your best to have enough supplies as you will need, so everyone has a good time. You don't want to be caught short. First of all, it's embarrassing! Not only that, you want people to enjoy the party—that's the whole point! In some ways, it's as basic as the old Scout motto: be prepared! Still, to be prepared may often mean relying on the sound, practical advice of others.

Jesus uses some clear examples in the Gospels to help us understand his message. The Gospel today is a parable about being wise and alert as we get ready for the Kingdom of Heaven. Jesus wants us to live wisely so that we are prepared for his Kingdom. That means making the choice of right over wrong; that means being a messenger of his Kingdom to others; that means being ready at any moment to join in the celebration—avoiding attitudes of selfishness or bitterness or sin. So, be wise; be prepared; be part of the Kingdom!

Peace and blessings,

Father Tom

Queridos amigos,

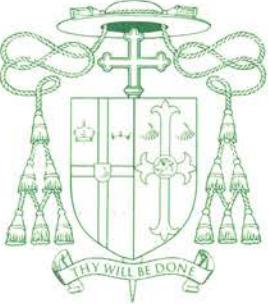

Es bastante obvio. Si alguien está a cargo de una comida o una fiesta, hará todo lo posible para tener los suficientes suministros que necesitará para que todos se diviertan. Nadie va a querer quedarse corto. En primer lugar, ¡es vergonzoso! No solo eso, el anfitrión quiere que la gente disfrute de la fiesta, ¡ese es el punto! En cierto modo, es tan básico como el antiguo lema de los boy scouts: ¡Siempre listo! Aún así, estar preparado a menudo puede significar que debemos confiar en los consejos prácticos y sensatos de otros.

Jesús utiliza algunos ejemplos claros en los Evangelios para ayudarnos a comprender su mensaje. El Evangelio de hoy es una parábola sobre cómo ser previsores y estar alerta mientras nos preparamos para el Reino de los Cielos. Jesús quiere que vivamos sabiamente para que estemos preparados para su Reino, porque no sabemos ni el día ni la hora". Eso significa elegir entre el bien y el mal; eso significa ser mensajeros de su Reino para los demás; eso significa estar listos en cualquier momento para unirnos a la celebración, evitando actitudes de egoísmo, amargura, enojo o pecado. Entonces, seamos sabio; seamos previsores y estemos preparados; solo así ¡Seremos parte del Reino!

Paz y bendiciones,

Padre Tom

To the Clergy, Staffs and the Faithful parishioners of Brooklyn and Queens,

Recently, I met with our Vicar General, Regional Vicars, local Deans and priests during our annual Priest Convocation in Douglaston. During this gathering, we discussed important issues that we will need to address in the near future, like new models of parish life, possible collaborations among parishes regarding Religious Education and other ministries, as well as assessing the current Mass schedules at all our parishes.

Allow me to share with you some statistics that were shared with the priests:

- In 2017, Mass attendance in our Diocese was reported at an average of 205,502 people per weekend. In 2022, the average was reported at 124,031. Due to demographic changes as well as the overall national trend of fewer Catholics attending Sunday Mass regularly, we see a decrease of nearly 40 percent in Mass attendance in our diocese in the last 5 years. This decline in Mass attendance means that we have in many parishes throughout the diocese large capacity churches with a significantly reduced Mass size.
- Due to a high number of priest retirements and deaths in recent years, there are fewer priests serving in our 175 parishes.
- In our diocese Mass is celebrated in 14 different languages on a weekly basis and in 26 languages monthly. This unique pastoral challenge in combination with the reduced number of clergy with bi-lingual skills further complicates the ability to best serve our parishes with specific language needs.

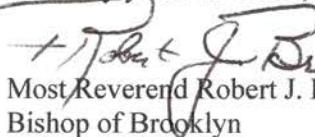

There is no simple solution to these issues. In many of our parishes it is evident that we do not need so many separate Masses to accommodate the number of parishioners in attendance at Sunday Eucharist each week. We are asking pastors and administrators throughout the diocese in Brooklyn and Queens, in consultation with their pastoral councils, to review and evaluate their Mass schedules. In many parishes, the number of Masses celebrated each weekend could be reduced by at least one or maybe more Masses, depending on the number of people attending and the capacity of each church.

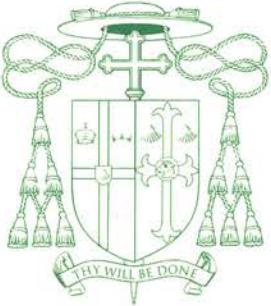

Additionally, your pastor in coordination with your Regional Vicar and local Dean, are beginning discussions at the deanery level concerning possible collaborations among neighboring parishes regarding Religious Education programs and other ministries, that could possibly lead to formal parish partnerships.

I ask for your openness and cooperation with these possible changes. Not every parish will be affected, but most will go through some sort of adjustment, in order to be able to most effectively serve the current needs of the People of God in our great Diocese.

Be assured of my prayers for each of you, and may I humbly ask for your prayers, especially for our pastors and administrators, and all those who will be part of these discussions taking place throughout our parishes and deaneries.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend Robert J. Brennan

Al clero, personal parroquial y a los fieles feligreses de Brooklyn y Queens, Recientemente tuve el placer de reunirme con nuestro Vicario General, Vicarios Regionales, Decanos locales y sacerdotes en una Convocatoria Sacerdotal en Douglaston. Discutimos temas importantes que necesitaremos abordar en el futuro cercano, como nuevos modelos de vida parroquial, posibles colaboraciones entre parroquias con respecto a Educación Religiosa y otros ministerios, y evaluar los horarios actuales de Misa en todas nuestras parroquias.

Permítanme compartir con ustedes algunas estadísticas que fueron compartidas con los sacerdotes:

- En 2017, la asistencia total a Misa en nuestra Diócesis fue de un promedio de 205,502 personas por fin de semana. En 2022, el promedio fue de 124,031. Debido a los cambios demográficos, así como a la tendencia nacional general de que menos católicos asisten a la Misa dominical con regularidad, vemos una disminución de casi el 40 por ciento en la asistencia a Misa en nuestra diócesis en los últimos 5 años. Esta disminución en la asistencia a Misa significa que en muchas parroquias de la diócesis tenemos iglesias de gran capacidad con asistencia a la Misa bastante reducida.
- Debido a un alto número de jubilaciones y fallecimientos, hay muchos menos sacerdotes en nuestras 175 parroquias.
- En nuestra diócesis, la Misa se celebra semanalmente en 14 idiomas diferentes y mensualmente en 26 idiomas. Esta es una situación única y el reducido número de clérigos bilingües complica aún más la capacidad de servir a las parroquias con necesidades lingüísticas específicas.

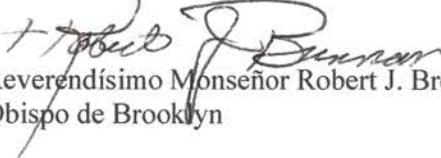

No existe una solución sencilla para estos problemas. En muchas de nuestras parroquias es evidente que no necesitamos tantas Misas para dar cabida al número de feligreses que asisten a la Eucaristía dominical. Estamos pidiendo a los párrocos y administradores de la diócesis de Brooklyn y Queens, en consulta con sus consejos pastorales, que revisen y evalúen sus horarios de Misas. En muchas parroquias, el número de Misas celebradas cada fin de semana puede reducirse en al menos una o quizás más Misas, dependiendo del número de personas que asisten y de la capacidad de cada iglesia.

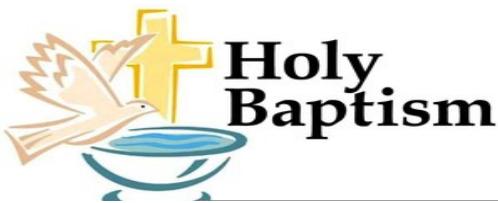

Además, su párroco, en coordinación con su Vicario Regional y el Decano local, están iniciando discusiones a nivel de decanato sobre posibles colaboraciones formales entre parroquias vecinas con respecto a la Educación Religiosa y otros ministerios, que posiblemente podrían conducir a la formación formal de parroquias asociadas de dos iglesias.

Les pido su apertura y cooperación con estos posibles cambios. No todas las parroquias se verán afectadas, pero la mayoría pasará por algún tipo de ajuste para poder continuar atendiendo de manera más efectiva las necesidades actuales del Pueblo de Dios en nuestra gran diócesis.

Les ofrezco mis oraciones por cada uno de ustedes, y les pido humildemente sus oraciones, especialmente por nuestros párrocos y administradores, y todos aquellos que serán parte de estas discusiones que tendrán lugar en nuestras parroquias y decanatos.

Sinceramente suyo en Cristo,

Reverendísimo Monseñor Robert J. Brennan

MATTHEW 25:13

The Light of Wisdom

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

The dark of night can unsettle and frighten children, but darkness can disturb adults, too. It's not so much the feeling when the lights go off that unsettles us grownups as it is the dark of uncertainty. We graduate from school and wonder what to do with our lives. Should we stay in a relationship? How do we find meaning again in the midst of grief and the loss of someone we love? And sometimes most of all, where is God when we need God? We may even wonder whether to believe. At such times, we bump and bruise our way through the obstacles that life's darknesses cause.

Leonard Cohen's song "Anthem" echoes a note of hope when we feel lost in the dark as he sings about how light always seems to find a way to seep in between the cracks of our everyday living. Like stars that are visible only at night, new opportunities are often most readily recognized when we find ourselves stumbling through the dark.

Long before Leonard Cohen, Jesus told the parable of ten virgins, some wise and some foolish. In the midst of that story, he tells of a bridegroom who comes to the waiting virgin attendants at midnight. In other words, it is the Lord God who comes into our lives in the darkest times, if only we are wise enough to recognize such a coming.

How then to negotiate the darkness? Stay the course. In time, wisdom reveals a path. Trust that light will come, all in God's time and not ours. Finally, wisdom always comes in the darkest of times, seldom when our lives are bright as day. ●

Reflect

When and how has God entered into your darkness?

[Jesús dijo:] “Velen, porque no saben ni el día ni la hora”.

MATEO 25:13

La luz de la sabiduría

P. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

La oscuridad de la noche puede inquietar y asustar a los niños, pero la oscuridad también puede perturbar a los adultos. No es tanto la sensación cuando se apagan las luces lo que nos inquieta a los adultos, sino la oscuridad de la incertidumbre. Terminamos los estudios y nos preguntamos qué hacer con nuestras vidas. ¿Debemos mantener una relación? ¿Cómo volvemos a encontrar el sentido en medio del dolor y la pérdida de alguien a quien amamos? Y a veces, sobre todo, ¿dónde está Dios cuando lo necesitamos? Puede que incluso nos preguntemos si creer. En esos momentos, chocamos y nos abrimos paso a través de los obstáculos que provocan las oscuridades de la vida.

La canción “Himno” de Leonard Cohen resuena con una nota de esperanza cuando nos sentimos perdidos en la oscuridad, cuando canta sobre cómo la luz siempre parece encontrar una forma de filtrarse entre las grietas de nuestra vida cotidiana. Como las estrellas que sólo son visibles de noche, las nuevas oportunidades suelen reconocerse más fácilmente cuando nos encontramos dando tumbos en la oscuridad.

Mucho antes que Leonard Cohen, Jesús contó la parábola de las diez vírgenes, unas prudentes y otras insensatas. En medio de esa historia, habla de un novio que se acerca a medianoche a las vírgenes que esperan. En otras palabras, es el Señor Dios quien viene a nuestras vidas en los momentos más oscuros, si tan sólo somos lo bastante sabios para reconocer tal venida.

¿Cómo negociar entonces la oscuridad? Manteniendo el rumbo. Con el tiempo, la sabiduría revela un camino. Confía en que la luz llegará, todo a su tiempo y no al nuestro. Por último, la sabiduría siempre llega en los momentos más oscuros, rara vez cuando nuestras vidas brillan como el día. ●

Para reflexionar

¿Cuándo y cómo ha entrado Dios en tu oscuridad?

Winter Coat Drive for the Needy

Our 7th grade, CCD Pre-Confirmation class is holding a Coat Drive as a service project. Please help us help the needy by donating a new or gently used winter coat. Men, women and children sizes are needed. Please bring your donation to either church on Sunday, November 19th. As always, thank you so much for your generosity!

Colecta de Abrigos para los Necesitados

Nuestra clase de Catecismo-Pre-Confirmación 7mo grado está llevando a cabo una Colecta de Abrigos como un proyecto de servicio. Ayúdenos a ayudar a los necesitados donando un abrigo de invierno nuevo o usado en buen estado. Se necesitan tallas de hombre, mujer y niños.

Por favor de traigan su donación a ambas iglesias el domingo 19 de noviembre.

Les agradecemos de antemano por su generosidad.

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Jesus wants to tell us that we must be prepared for the encounter with him. Not only for the final encounter, but also for the everyday great and small encounters, with a view to that encounter for which the lamp of faith is not enough; we also need the oil of charity and good works.

UNA PALABRA DEL PAPA FRANCISCO

Jesús quiere decírnos que debemos estar preparados para el encuentro con Él. No sólo para el encuentro final, sino también para los encuentros cotidianos, grandes y pequeños, con vistas a ese encuentro para el que no basta la lámpara de la fe, sino que necesitamos también el aceite de la caridad y de las buenas obras.
