Second Sunday of Lent February 25, 2024

Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. Mk 9:7-8

Letter from our Pastor—Carta de nuestro párroco

Dear Friends,

Everyone needs a little hope! Whether it's the child learning to ride a bike, a parent raising a child, a worker discouraged by office gossip, or the person undergoing radiation treatments, everyone needs hope. Hope reminds us that things can get better. Hope declares that the challenges and problems each day brings will find resolution in God's plan.

Our Lenten journey, if taken seriously, will find us struggling sometimes. We have decided to do something extra to care for others, or to take some more time for prayer, or to make sacrifices which help us to be more conscious of the poor. But it's not always easy. That's why the Second Sunday of Lent offers the promising picture of the Transfigured Jesus, radiant in glory. In the midst of their difficult journey to Jerusalem and the Cross, the disciples are given a vision of who Jesus really is! Just so, in our Lenten journey, we are reminded of Christ's ultimate victory. He is our hope. We seek to draw closer to Jesus in this special season, and in doing so, we carry our daily burdens and challenges with renewed faith.

May Christ lift us up and lift our sights to him!

Peace and blessings,

Fr. Tom

Queridos amigos,

¡Todos necesitamos un poco de esperanza! Ya sea el niño que está aprendiendo a andar en bicicleta, una madre que empieza a cuidar de su recién nacido, un trabajador desanimado por los chismes de la oficina o la persona que está recibiendo tratamientos de radiación, todos necesitamos de la esperanza. La esperanza nos recuerda que las cosas pueden mejorar. La esperanza declara que los desafíos y problemas que trae cada día encontrarán su solución en el plan de Dios.

Nuestra jornada cuaresmal, si la tomamos en serio, no va a ser siempre fácil. Hemos decidido hacer algo adicional para cuidar de los demás, o dedicar más tiempo a la oración, o hacer sacrificios que nos ayuden a estar más conscientes de los necesitados. Todo esto puede ser difícil. Por eso el segundo domingo de Cuaresma ofrece el cuadro prometedor de Jesús Transfigurado, radiante en su gloria. En medio de su difícil camino hacia Jerusalén y hacia la Cruz, ¡los discípulos reciben una visión de quién es Jesús realmente! De la misma manera, en nuestra jornada cuaresmal, recordamos la victoria final de Cristo. Él es nuestra esperanza. Buscamos acercarnos a Jesús en esta temporada especial y al hacerlo, podemos llevar nuestras cargas y desafíos diarios con fe renovada.

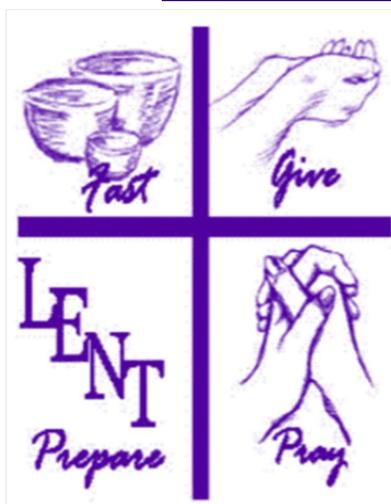

¡Que Cristo nos levante y alce nuestra mirada hacia él!

Paz y bendiciones,

Padre Tom

SCHOOL NEWS

The month of February has been short but a busy one! Our students celebrated Valentine's Day at our Sweetheart Dance attended by family and friends. The NYPD visited our school to receive our donation of $650 to the PBA Widows and Children's Fund. They took photos and brought us gifts to thank our students for their generosity. We all celebrated the 100th Day of School with treats and projects. Students and teachers worked remotely for our first Snow Day in over two years! Pajama Day saw us enjoy juice, hot chocolate, and cookies. We collected donations for the Pajama Program which provides children with the materials, information and support they need to have Good Nights for Good Days.

Please visit our Facebook and Instagram to see photos of all these wonderful events!

Transfigurations in a Mutilated World

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

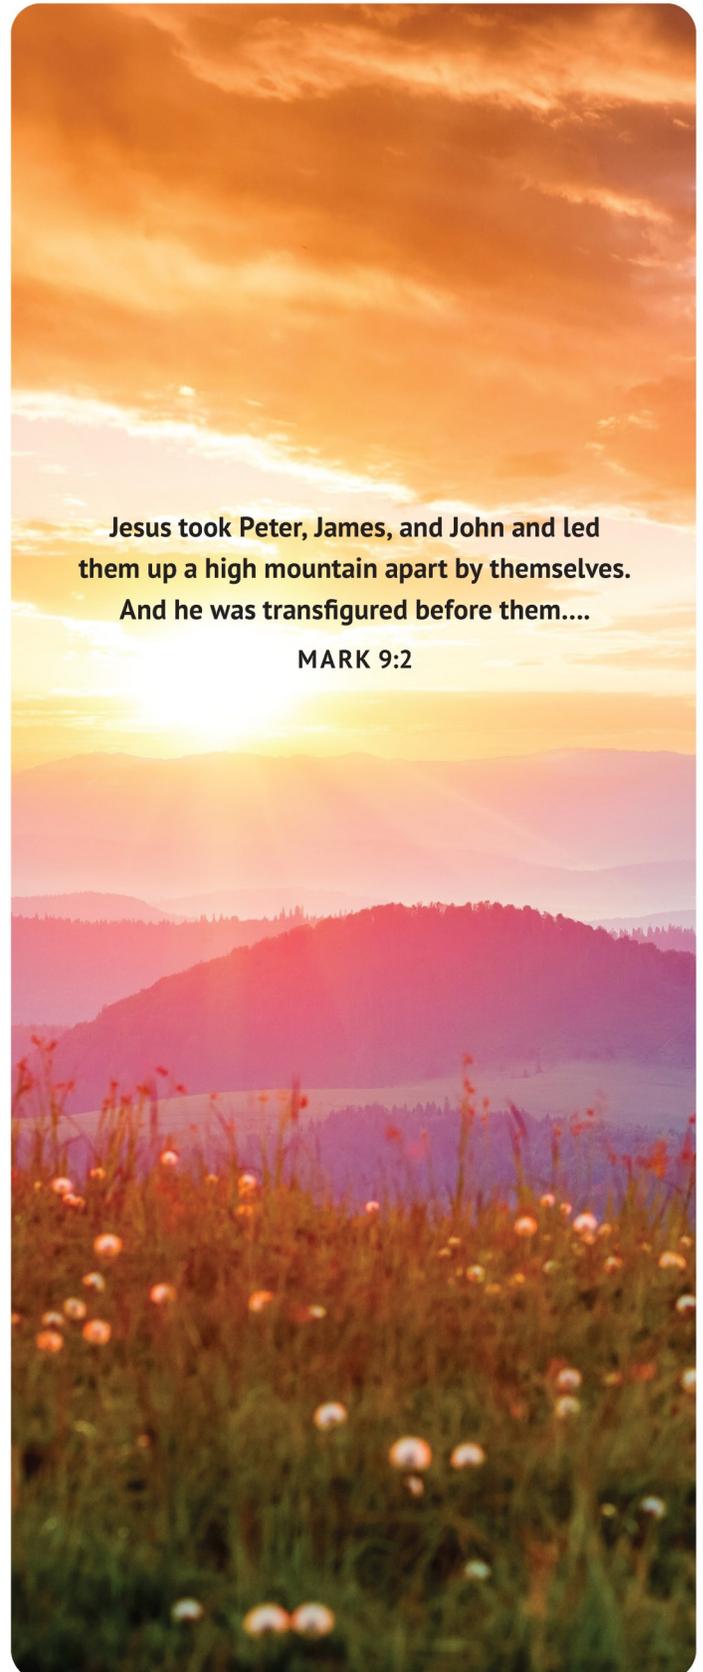

I' ve never met anyone who thought today's story in Genesis of Abraham and Isaac to be a good story. Abhorred, they ask, "Why would God test someone by asking him to sacrifice his son?" But what if we change the question and ask, "Why would the Hebrew people include that story in their most holy writings? Why would they tell it over and over?" Because of the ending—that's why. Like a movie we watch over and over even though we know how it ends, we watch it, in part, because the ending is satisfying.

The ending of the Abraham/Isaac story shows God is not interested in death and human sacrifice, contrary to the gods of that time. The God of the Hebrews is a God of Life—that's the surprise ending they love, and they keep telling it over and over lest they forget. For them, the part about the testing is simply a means to that unbelievable ending when God insists upon life, contrary to false gods.

In his poem "Try to Praise the Mutilated World," Adam Zagajewski writes of life's Godly moments in a world we have mutilated by violence, greed, division, and more. He muses on tender moments when we fall in love, on laughter until our sides hurt, on nature's dazzle, on the sweet taste of wine—all simple moments of a life-giving God transfigured in a mutilated world, for our God insists upon life. ●

Reflect

Remember and give thanks for the moments of this past week that made you smile.

Jesus took Peter, James, and John and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves. And he was transfigured before them....

MARK 9:2

Transfiguraciones en un mundo mutilado

P. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

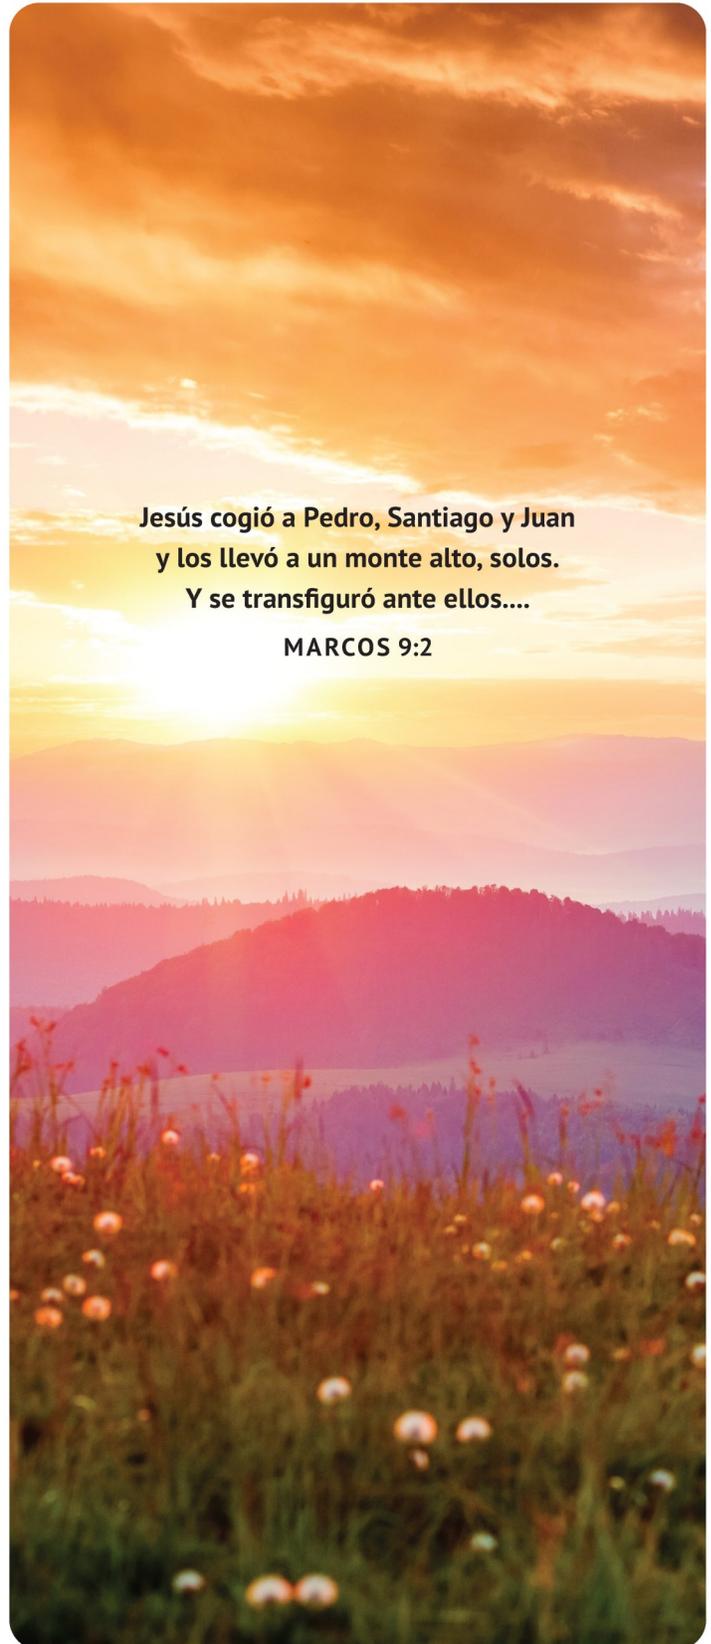

Nunca he conocido a nadie que pensara que la historia de hoy en el Génesis de Abraham e Isaac fuera una buena historia. Aborrecidos, preguntan: “¿Por qué iba Dios a poner a prueba a alguien pidiéndole que sacrificara a su hijo?”. Pero, ¿y si cambiamos la pregunta y preguntamos: “¿Por qué incluiría el pueblo hebreo esa historia en sus escritos más sagrados? ¿Por qué la contarían una y otra vez?”. Por el final, por eso. Como una película que vemos una y otra vez aunque sabemos cómo acaba, la vemos, en parte, porque el final es satisfactorio.

El final de la historia de Abraham/Isaac muestra que a Dios no le interesan la muerte ni los sacrificios humanos, al contrario que a los dioses de aquella época. El Dios de los hebreos es un Dios de Vida: ése es el final sorpresa que les encanta, y lo repiten una y otra vez para no olvidarlo. Para ellos, la parte de la prueba es simplemente un medio para llegar a ese final increíble en el que Dios insiste en la vida, contrariamente a los falsos dioses.

En su poema “Intentar alabar el mundo mutilado”, Adam Zagajewski escribe sobre los momentos divinos de la vida en un mundo que hemos mutilado por la violencia, la codicia, la división y otras cosas. Reflexiona sobre los momentos tiernos en que nos enamoramos, sobre la risa hasta que nos duelen los costados, sobre el deslumbramiento de la naturaleza, sobre el dulce sabor del vino: todos ellos momentos sencillos de un Dios dador de vida transfigurado en un mundo mutilado, pues nuestro Dios insiste en la vida. ●

Para reflexionar

Recuerda y agradece los momentos de la semana pasada que te hicieron sonreír.

Jesús cogió a Pedro, Santiago y Juan y los llevó a un monte alto, solos.
Y se transfiguró ante ellos....
