Dear Parishioners,

As you hopefully already know, for the week of June 7 - 11, I will be at the annual priest retreat in Mount Angel; there will not be daily Masses while I am gone. I will be back on Friday night, and I am planning to celebrate Mass in honor of the Immaculate Heart of Mary at 9 AM on Saturday, June 12. I know the lack of daily Mass is a sacrifice for those who attend Masses during the week; please offer that sacrifice on behalf of the clergy who will be at the retreat. We will be praying for all of you.

It seems like every year, different groups come out with "summer reading lists." If you are looking for something to read over the summer, here a few of my own suggestions. The first two books come from the Acts XXIX group that led the priest convocation in May. Some of the material will sound familiar since I have been pulling heavily from these books for my recent homilies. The books are: Rescued: The Unexpected and Extraordinary News of the Gospel by Fr. John Riccardo and The Christian Cosmic Narrative: The Deep History of the World, no specific author is listed but it is published by Acts XXIX Press. The third book is for anyone who wants to learn more about Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati: A Man of the Beatitudes written by Luciana Frassati, Pier Giorgio's sister. All of these books are fairly short, and I have found them to be very engaging and very enlightening. Most local booksellers should be able to help you find them, if not, just ask me and I'll point you in the right direction. Enjoy!

Verso l'alto,

Father Brent Crowe

MINISTRY OF CARE & SERVICE TO THE PARISH

Dear Parish Family – Thank you SO much for all the cards and prayers you have sent my way. I've discovered when you can't pray for yourself, the prayers of others place you in the hands of Jesus. It makes me want to pray for everyone in the whole world. Thank you. – Bernadette Lombard

Happy Anniversary! – On June 2, Fr. Brent Crowe completed three years in the ministry. We congratulate him on his ordination anniversary and thank him for his years of service. Thank you, Father, for all you do and may God grant you continued strength and guidance to carry on in His service.

Bulletin Deadline – All submissions for the weeks of June 20 and 27 will be due by June 14. Thank you.

Ashland Wildfire Safety Campaign – Fire season is upon us and this month Ashland residents are asked to Be Ready to Evacuate! In order to know when to leave you will want to sign up for Nixle, the top way to receive evacuation notices. For cell phones, enter 888777 as the recipient and text 97520 in the message line. That's it. Now you are signed up for Ashland's Community Alert System and can focus on the three levels of evacuation, namely, Level 1 – Be Ready, Level 2 – Be Set and Level 3 – Go! You may also tune your radio to 1700 AM as another source of emergency information. It's important that you be ready to evacuate at a moment's notice from your home or workplace when alerted to do so. Having a "go kit" for each family member and a plan for pets and those with special needs is also important in addition to making sure your gas tank is always full. You can find more information about the Wildfire Preparedness Campaign at fireadaptedashland.org/wildfireprep.

PARISH OUTREACH

OHRA Mobile Shower Unit – Donations are still needed for the OHRA Mobile shower unit and Janie Brown continues to collect them. When talking with volunteers, Janie was told that they are running out of everything and are extremely grateful for any and all donations. The Ashland Mobile Shower Unit provides free Showers and laundry facilities to the homeless as well as medical checks for foot care. They are in constant need of socks, towels and gently used clothing. Even snacks are very much appreciated. So, if you would like to help in this ongoing effort, please bring your freshly washed clothing items to the parish office or contact Janie directly at 541-944-7123. As always, thank you for your generosity!
