Dear Friends,

As some of you may have already learned, we have received permission from the archdiocese to sell the Newman Center property near SOU on the corner of Elkader and Ashland Streets. The building has quite a bit of deferred maintenance and upkeep costs which is why we sought permission to sell it. The Newman Center campus ministry will continue, but we will be doing it here at the parish. The property has not been listed for sale yet and we don't have a timeframe other than "as soon as it is ready."

There is a bunch of furniture, books, and other stuff in the house that should be removed before it goes up for sale. Anyone who has donated items to the Newman Center and would like them back will have until Thursday, February 3rd to claim them. After that, the Saint Vincent de Paul Society will have an opportunity to see if there is anything it can use for its ministry; it would be wonderful if the majority of the items at the Newman Center could be used to help our neighbors who are most in need of them.

Finally, the rest of the parish will have an opportunity to claim any remaining items. Anyone who claims anything from the Newman Center is responsible for moving it themselves; you will need to arrange for transportation and your own "moving crew." I will keep you updated on the progress of the sale. If you have questions about the sale or why the property is being sold, please feel free to contact me and I will try to answer your questions as quickly as possible.

Verso l'alto,
Father Brent Crowe
