Dear Friends,

As you know by now, this year during Advent, Archbishop Sample has asked all of the priests to preach on the "Kerygma." Kerygma is a Greek word which means "proclamation." As I said last weekend, I prefer to think of this as telling a story. Not just any story but the greatest story possible: God's story and how God has a role for each person to play in His story. Some of you might be wanting a little more information than I can give during a homily. If so, here are some suggestions. Much of what I am referring to is based on a program from the Acts XXIX apostolate called the Rescue Project. You can find out more information about this video series here: <https://rescueproject.us/> If you prefer to read, check out Fr John Riccardo's book Rescued. For more information about viewing the world through the eyes of the Bible, check out the book The Christian Cosmic Narrative: The Deep History of the World published by Acts XXIX Press. Whatever you do this Advent season make time to slow down and prepare yourselves to welcome Jesus at Christmas. ~Fr. Brent

GIVING TREE 2022: These past years have given families, especially here in the Rogue Valley, unseen challenges that touch every aspect of their wellbeing. For families that cannot afford to provide gifts for their children this Christmas, please consider choosing one of the children from our giving tree. If you cannot get to the store, but still want to help provide a gift for these children, you might consider donating through our online giving. There is a new page on our website for donations. You can also scan this QRC code with your phone camera, and it will take you directly to the page. Gifts are due back on December 18.
