Dear Parishioners,

As I have mentioned a number of times, our parish has a great need for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to bring the Eucharist to our homebound friends and neighbors. This is a wonderful opportunity for you to be an icon of Our Blessed Mother who went in haste to visit her cousin Elizabeth in the hill country of Judah, carrying the presence of Jesus with her in her womb. Mary was a living Tabernacle when she carried Jesus within her. Jesus is also truly present in the Eucharist.

When we carry the Eucharist out into the world to our homebound friends and neighbors, we also become living Tabernacles. It is a great privilege and honor that God--through the Church--has bestowed upon us by allowing us to carry the Eucharistic presence of Jesus out into the world in this way. Please prayerfully consider giving some of your time to this vital ministry.

There will be a retreat and training opportunity for this ministry in the fall; the date will be announced. The retreat will begin with Mass at 9 AM; the training will follow Mass and end at noon.

Although this is intended specifically for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to the Homebound, it is open to anyone who might be interested in this ministry but has questions about it before they make a commitment.

Your friends and neighbors need your help, please be generous in your response.

Verso l'alto (To the heights),

Father Brent Crowe

OLM Welcomes New Religious Ed. Coordinator

Meet Christine Bates, our new REC here at Our Lady of the Mountain! Chris was born and raised in Medford. She has a BA in Business from University of Portland, a MEd in Teaching & Learning from Liberty

University and is currently working toward her MA in Theology & Educational Ministry from Catholic Distance University. Chris is an Army veteran, a home educator for the past seven years, and was a catechist in the Archdiocese for the Military Services. Her husband, Jon, recently retired after 24 years of Active Army service, and they are now living back in the valley. They have four daughters; two of which are homeschooled and two will attend Sacred Heart Catholic School. Chris is honored and delighted to be charged with the facilitation of OLM's Religious Education program and looks forward to serving this parish. Be sure to introduce yourself to Christine and welcome her to our parish family!

† In Memoriam: Please pray for the repose of the soul of Suzanne Heinrich. May she rest in peace.

St. Anne's Women's Guild – Be sure to join us on August 17 at noon for a no-host luncheon at the Elks Lodge. All women of the parish are invited. Please RSVP to Janie Brown at 541-482-8255. See you soon!

Women's Retreat – St. Benedict's Lodge and Retreat Center in McKenzie Bridge is pleased to announce our annual Women's Retreat, from September 9 - 11.

Our speaker will be Jeremy Miller, the author of "It's about the Eternal Life After All". It will be an excellent opportunity to spend a few days of quiet and reflection after two very difficult years with the pandemic. Give yourself a treat! Cost for the retreat is $130 per person for a dorm room or $120 for a shared room. Cabins are extra. To register, send a $50 deposit to: St. Benedict Lodge, 56630 North Bank Rd., McKenzie Bridge, OR 97413. Call 541-822-3572, or email us at stbenedictretreat@gmail.com for more information.

Catholic Sentinel

Oregon's Catholic Newspapers to Shut Down – We are saddened to announce the closure of the Portland-based Catholic Sentinel and El Centinela newspapers on October 1, 2022. This transition in Catholic communications will result in an annual cost savings of hundreds of thousands of dollars. Ed Langlois, who started as a reporter at the Sentinel in 1993 and became managing editor of both papers in 2016, said he is saddened by the decision, but understands it. "Given the financial pressures that the pandemic brought to the archdiocese and OCP, the writing was on the wall," said Langlois. Langlois is hopeful that the archdiocese will find a vibrant way to retain local Catholic news coverage. Mater Dei Radio already has upped its coverage of local Catholic news on western Oregon. Langlois said the station is well poised to keep up the reporting tradition. Those with questions regarding these changes should contact Oregon Catholic Press at 800-548-8749.

"The Woman at the Foot of the Cross Part 1" of a special two-part Lighthouse Talks presentation – Augustine Institute professor Dr. Ben Akers gives a meditative, scriptural reflection on keeping vigil at the foot of the cross with Jesus's mother, Mary. Dr. Akers explains the deeper meaning behind Jesus's confusing address of Mary as "Woman," and illuminates the connections and foreshadowing between the biblical stories of Creation, the Wedding at Cana, and the Crucifixion. We learn profoundly, as Dr. Akers explains, that "everything Mary does points us to her Son." In Part 2 of this special presentation, Dr. Akers weaves together the stories of the Fall and Jesus' Passion and Resurrection. He also provides illuminating answers to thoughtful questions from the audience. Pick up your copy today!
