Bulletin Submission Deadline: Monday at Noon

Dear Friends,
Many of you already know by now that as we were preparing for the Stations of the Cross on Good Friday, an unresponsive man was found outside of the library entrance to the parish hall. The paramedics were called but they were unable to revive him. None of the people who were trying to help him recognized him and we do not know his name, nor do we know how he died. We may not know his name, but God does. Please pray for this man and his loved ones. Please also pray for our police, fire, and emergency medical personnel who work so hard to care for us and protect us. If we get more information about this tragedy, we will let you know.
~Fr. Brent Crowe
