Congratulations to the Sacred Heart Homeschoolers Brain Bowl team! If you haven't heard already, this small group of homeschoolers competed in the Southern Oregon, Division A, High School, Brain Bowl competition last month against North and South Medford, Saint Mary's, Ashland, and Grants Pass. They won every one of those matches and went on to the finals last weekend, which was televised on Southern Oregon PBS. They won that championship match 75-40. The team, coached by Lisa Bock and Paul Moening, performed poised and professionally against these large schools. When receiving the finalist trophy, team captain, Matthew Bock, gave thanks and all the glory to God, the source of all knowledge, wisdom, and truth. If you are interested in watching the final match, it will be posted soon on the SOPTV website under the Brain Bowl tab. The homeschoolers that competed were: Matthew Bock, Ford Michael Moening, Justin and Nathan Jantzer, and Nattalie Bates. Those not present to compete, but were vital members of the team, were: Andrew, Silas, and Owen Millenheft, and Henry and Josef Kantor.
