Bulletin Submission Deadline: Monday at Noon

Hello! I wanted to write a letter to everyone of the parish - I will no longer be the Youth & Young Adult Minister here at OLM. It has been an amazing four years (I can't even believe it's been four years!), and I want to thank you all. I want to thank anyone who donated to our Youth Group through Bowl-A-Thons, fundraisers, in the weekly collection basket, those who made meals for our Youth Group and Newman Group, anyone who donated by purchasing items off our Amazon wish list, everyone who gave of their time to volunteer, anyone who supported this ministry through their prayers, and finally, all the teens and young adults I've ministered to over the years; you are the best! I am forever grateful for all the support of the parish community and the support of Fr. Brent and all the staff during my time here. OLM is a very special and truly welcoming parish! My last day working here will be June 25th, then I will begin the process of moving to Salem. There, I will be working for Catholic Community Services. Please keep me in your prayers through this time of transition, and I will keep you all in mine. Thank you all again, and God Bless!

~Liz Millenheft
