How to Venerate Saint Jude's Relics

When you join the viewing line, whether outside or inside the Church, please observe silence as you patiently wait your turn to reach Saint Jude. If you are disabled or infirm and cannot stand in line, please walk down the center aisle to the reliquary and inform one of the ushers, who will take you to the reliquary. Each person may take only a moment (less than ten seconds) in front of the relics. Because your time in front of the relics is limited, please do your praying while you wait in line. You will have no time to do so at the reliquary.

No photos are permitted during your time in front of the Saint. Your veneration time is exclusively for that: veneration. After doing so, you may step aside and take a photo while the next pilgrims are venerating. Various images and items of devotion are available at the Souvenirs and Resources Table; you may wish to obtain these before getting in line to touch them to the reliquary.

You are encouraged to touch the reliquary display case. In every instance where Scripture mentions relics, two things occur: (1) There is always healing; and (2) Touch is how the healing comes about. You are also encouraged to touch your objects of devotion (rosaries, medals, crosses, wedding bands, etc.) to bless them and make them into third-class relics. You may also touch pictures of family members and friends to invoke Saint Jude's intercession. If you have your objects in a bag, removing them is unnecessary. Touch the bag, and the blessing transfers to all the objects you desire to be blessed.

Special Plenary Indulgence Issued by the Vatican

The Holy See has issued a plenary indulgence available to all pilgrims who venerate Saint Jude's relics. A plenary indulgence is an act by the Pope whereby he uses his authority as the successor of Saint Peter to declare the removal of one's accrued purgation to be spent in Purgatory. A Catholic who gains a plenary indulgence receives a "blank slate" in terms of Purgatory up to the moment of attaining it.

The Conditions to Receive the Plenary Indulgence

1. Venerate the relics of St. Jude. Inside the Church where the relics are displayed, or at least someone on the grounds where they are present, say a prayer of your choosing (a formal prayer—such as an Our Father—or one made up by you) or make an act of veneration (e.g., touching the glass of the display case or making the Sign of the Cross).
2. Pray for the Pope. Reciting one Our Father and one Hail Mary satisfies this condition.
3. Receive the Sacrament of Confession within twenty days of visiting the relics.
4. Receive Holy Communion within the same twenty days while free from grave sin.
5. Resolve to end all relationships with sin, even venial (i.e., non-mortal) sin.

For Those for Whom Visiting the Relic is Not Possible Due to Serious Inconvenience: Persons of old age, the sick, and all who are unable to leave their home for a serious reason (e.g., travel distance) may likewise gain the plenary indulgence after fulfilling condition #5 above and conditions #2-4 "as soon as possible" and fulfilling the additional condition of "joining themselves spiritually to Saint Jude's holy pilgrimage and offering their prayers, sufferings, and inconveniences to our merciful God."

May One Obtain a Plenary Indulgence on Behalf of Someone Else? A plenary indulgence may be obtained for oneself, offered for the soul of someone already deceased (or for the dead in general), but it cannot be applied to another still living.
