

March 3, 2019
Ordinary Time
Eighth Sunday

Jesus turns to short parables as he continues to teach the disciples on the plain. The disciples hear how their teacher will train them in his ways, how they should not judge another person when sin remains in them; and how trees are known by the fruit they bear – a direct connection to the First Reading from Sirach.

We hear Jesus speak what we could consider obvious tautology: good comes from good and evil from evil. We speak what is in our heart – let that be goodness!

Today's Bulletin is printed in memory of Dorothy Barta sponsored by the Doris Simper Family.

REFLECTION

The Zeal of the Disciples

Today's gospel provides a perfect conclusion to winter Ordinary Time and a helpful beginning of Lent. Both teachers, Sirach and Jesus speak wisdom that is straight to the point. – Speech betrays character – Sirach warns in the first reading, as fruit shows how healthy the tree is.

Jesus calls those who are overly concerned with the flaws of others hypocrites. It is often much easier to recognize what changes someone else needs to make than to address our own faults and failings.

Jesus condemns people who act in a way that is not true to themselves. Pretending to be something other than what one is, Jesus is telling us, is unworthy of his followers.

Ash Wednesday Mass Schedule

St. Joseph's, Moulton: 8:15 a.m. & 7:00 p.m.

St. Mary's, Praha: 5:30 p.m.

"Come and admit you are a sinner in need of redemption" is hardly an invitation the typical American would find favorable. The power of Ash Wednesday however, calls believers to their place of worship in droves to confess their sin, and even to wear a public sign of their repentance.

The blessing and administration of ashes opens this season of sorrow and mercy. Ash Wednesday has been observed throughout the universal church for over nine hundred years. It invites the baptized faithful into a spirit of repentance. Even those who do not frequent the Mass come to express their sorrow and to receive the symbol of repentance. This is a day of fast and abstinence. The faithful are asked to abstain from meat today. That includes poultry but not fish and seafood. Still, the idea is to eat simply, not lavishly as a sign of self-denial and repentance.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

The Blessed Sacrament will be exposed for an hour after Mass for adoration and personal prayer on Fridays of Lent and all-day on the First Friday of the month. This could be a good substitute if you cannot participate in the devotion of the Stations of the Cross on Friday evenings.

Stations of the Cross: Fridays of Lent, 6:00 p.m.
